

BLOODY MASSACRE REIGNS IN ODESSA

ENDS HIS LIFE IN ROOM 13.

Aged Farmer Strangles to Death in Hotel at Niles.

NILES, November 3.—Jacob Lotz, a German farmer, 65 years of age, committed suicide by hanging himself with a leather strap attached to a clothes hook last night in room 13 of the Niles Hotel. Despondency and the loneliness of old age are assigned as the causes.

Lotz made the most careful and determined preparations to kill himself. He retired to his room about 6 o'clock last night and locked the door. Just when he decided to make away with himself is not known. However, he undid the leather strap around his valise, made a noose out of one end and tied the other to a clothes hook which was capable of sustaining his weight. He then placed the noose around his neck and then threw himself forward, all his weight being borne by the strap around his throat. At anytime he could have relieved himself of the necessity of choking to death by using his legs. He simply strangled to death. His body was found this morning dangling limply at the end of the strap.

There are few cases in the coroner's records where a more determined effort at suicide was made.

The deceased was a widower and had of late been working as a laborer.

Coroner Mehrmann has been notified of the death and will hold an inquest.

BERKELEY WOMAN SEEKS DEATH IN HORRIBLE FORM

BERKELEY, Nov. 3.—Mrs. Mary Davis, who resides in the rear of the Chicago Hotel in West Berkeley, threw herself on the railroad tracks in front of the hotel last night and almost met death under the wheels of the flying train.

The San Ramon express was thundering down on the track a few hundred yards from the hotel when Mrs. Davis, crying that she intended to end her life of sorrow, rushed to the track and laid down on the rail.

People who were sitting on the hotel porch screamed as they witnessed Mrs. Davis' rash act. They rushed to her assistance but before they reached her the engineers, who saw the woman throw herself on the steel rail brought his engine to a standstill only a few feet from where the would-be suicide lay.

Were it not for the promptness of the engineer in reversing the throttle Mrs. Davis undoubtedly would have been killed, as assistance could not have reached her in time to save her from being ground underneath the engine wheels.

Today Mrs. Davis is recovered from her experience and declares that she is not in any mood to commit suicide now. She is inclined to deny that she sought death on the railroad tracks under the car wheels. She can give no reason, however, why she deliberately placed herself on the tracks and cried out "Welcome Death."

SAYS DEPUTY POUNDMAN STOLE HIS LITTLE GIRL

Frank Perry, deputy poundman, and Miss Blanche Rafael, step-daughter of Henry Smith, also a deputy poundman, residing at 1181 Third street, are missing and the police are now trying to locate them.

The step-father is in a very angry mood and accuses Perry of having violated all the laws of hospitality by running away with the girl who is in her sixteenth year. The step-father threatens more than corporal punishment and has told his friends that all that he desires is for the police to locate the runaway couple and that he will attend to the case of Perry.

The missing deputy is 27 years of age. He resided at the home of Smith and is alleged to have secretly made love to the daughter of the household. On October 31st Smith paid Perry $78. This sum seemed sufficient for the needs of the elopers and a half an hour afterwards they were en route for an unknown destination.

This is what the step-father has to say: "I befriended Perry and had no thought that he was in love with Blanche. They left three days ago. He had no right to ruin the young girl and when he is found he will have to render me an accounting to me. He has wronged the child and he will have to pay for it."

LATEST BULLETINS

MOSCOW, November 3.—A procession of students returning today with some of their comrades, who had been released from prison, was set upon by a mob of workmen at the Triumphal Arch. Ten of the students were killed.

MINSK, Russia, November 3.—A demonstration yesterday of students and workmen carrying banners inscribed with the words "Long live liberty," was attacked by Volga longshoremen. Many persons were wounded.

BAKU, Caucasus, November 3.—The Socialists marched to the prison and demanded the liberation of the political prisoners. The troops fired on the Socialists and many of them were wounded.

ROMMY, Russia, November 3.—During the pillage of the Jewish stores which lasted until yesterday morning, fifteen stores were burned to the ground and many more were sacked. The rioting began when a crowd killed a rich merchant for refusing to take off his hat to a red flag. Many persons were killed.

TIFLIS, November 3.—An immense meeting of workmen, students and professional men here today demanded the release of the political prisoners and the abolition of the state of siege, to which the Viceroy promised to accede if the strike ceased. The police and troops barred the road to the vice regal palace, but otherwise did not interfere.

Startling testimony was given in the police court today against Henry Logan, erstwhile church trustee, who is accused of having influenced Ethel Cook, a sixteen-year-old Sunday School teacher, to leave her home and go with him to Oregon. The testimony was given by the young girl herself and was in effect that when Logan knew that he was to be arrested he gave the girl a portion of poison, took a quantity of the drug himself, but owing to his inexperience in handling the death-dealing doses, a murder and a suicide was prevented.

CHURCH TRUSTEE ACCUSED OF AN ATTEMPTED MURDER AND SUICIDE, BY A GIRL

Henry Logan is Placed on Trial

Durrant-Like Case

Not only did Henry A. Logan spirit little Ethel Margaret Cook away from her home and mother, but he gave her a dose of laudanum when he found that he was about to be arrested.

The failure of the church deacon to kill the girl and himself was evidently due to his ignorance of the properties of the drug.

This was all brought out this morning when Logan's preliminary hearing was begun before Police Judge Samuels.

According to Ethel Cook, when the marshal of Medford, Oregon, found them in a restaurant and said he would wait outside until they had finished their meal. Logan gave her a teaspoonful of laudanum and drank a similar amount himself.

Logan was unaccompanied this morning save by his attorney, A. L. Erick. The wife whom he has so cruelly wronged, and the little boy he forsaken for Ethel Cook, the High School girl, were not in the court room.

BOWS AND SMILES.

As brazenly as he has committed every act in his wretched career, Logan entered the court room and bowed and smiled to several acquaintances. It is not a pleasant smile that Logan bestows upon those who are so unfortunate as to know him.

It is the smile of the hypocrite, and his eyes, of a peculiar tinge, remind one forcibly of Elsie Venner. Snake-like seems to be the word that best describes his every action.

Certainly, he is one of the last men in the world that one would choose for the hero of a romantic runaway. He is more like Svengali, although he has none of the magnetism of that famous fellow, who was "as bad as they made 'em."

MOTHER'S STORY.

The prosecution of Logan was conducted by Prosecuting Attorneys Leach and Greene. The first witness was Mrs. Mary Ross, mother of the young victim of Logan's treachery.

Mrs. Ross stated that her daughter, Ethel, was sixteen years old December 13 of last year, and that she lived with her mother and stepfather at 1799 Grove street. She had met Logan, she said, at the First Free Baptist Church, where she was a member, and he a deacon.

LOGAN AND ETHEL.

"When was the first time you noticed anything wrong between your daughter and Logan?" asked Greene.

"It was at a private picnic in Ford's Canyon, Berkeley, last Fourth of July," was the reply. "Several of the young folks walked over the hills. Ethel was with Logan, and they remained away longer than I thought they should. The following Friday night they started for a band concert in the City Hall Park. Instead they went to Piedmont. After that Logan called often at our house. Twice he brought his wife. I have invited him to my home for dinner."

"Did anything else ever attract your attention?" was asked.

"LOOKED AT HER."

"Yes; once at church Ethel laughed so often that I was greatly annoyed. She seemed hysterical, and when I looked at Logan I saw that he was looking at the child with intensity. He didn't take his eyes off her face."

"When did you last see your daughter in Oakland before her departure?"

"She left for the Oakland High School October 11, and did not return."

Mrs. Ross then told of going to Medford, Oregon, where the runaways were arrested, and of bringing Ethel back to Oakland. She also identified a letter which was printed in THE TRIBUNE, and which she received from Logan. She said she gave this letter to Professor S. P. Meads, who turned it over to the police. The letter was admitted in evidence despite the objection of Attorney Frick.

ETHEL ON STAND.

There was no cross-examination of the outraged mother, and there was something of a sensation in the court

THE LARGE PICTURE IS THAT OF ETHEL COOK, THE 16-YEAR-OLD SUNDAY SCHOOL TEACHER, WHILE THE SMALL PICTURE IS THAT OF HENRY LOGAN, THE DISGRACED CHURCH TRUSTEE.

***** Here is what the San Francisco News Letter, issued today, has to say about Henry Logan: *****

"Henry Adelbert Logan, the trustee of the Baptist Church of Oakland, says he was hypnotized by Ethel Cook, the little school girl with whom he eloped. Ethel is a very naughty little girl. It was bad enough for her to make sheep's eyes at a church trustee who is the father of a family, but to run away with him was unforgivable. Logan should receive the sympathy of all church trustees who are brought into contact with designing females in short dresses. Ethel is sixteen, a very dangerous age, and a wife and a boy seven years old, he could not resist Ethel's goo-goo eyes. He says so himself, and therefore it must be true, for he is a church trustee, and I would not dare to contradict his word. Moreover, he was also superintendent of Sunday School."

"I have very great respect for good men who occupy such positions, for I am aware of the terrible temptations to which they are subjected by instructing girls of the fascinating ages of twelve to sixteen. "Logan was a particularly nice Sunday School instructor. He always parted his hair in the middle, he always wore a white tie, and he never forgot to wash his hands in invisible soap as he softly asked every little girl if she were saved. He attended all the pink teas and detested every man who smoked or went to a ball game on the Sabbath. He thought they were perfectly horrid. He was a very personable, as holy a young man as Durrant—until naughty little Ethel Cook hypnotized him, and led him astray. Logan's story is, of course, very sad. He suffers much, but he says he is of the stuff of which martyrs are made. He should not be deprived of an opportunity to enjoy a little taste of martyrdom. "I therefore move, Mr. Chairman, that we, the neighbors of said Henry Adelbert Logan, proceed forthwith to the vile calaboose in which he is immured, and release him therefrom, so that, to do him greater honor, we may confer upon him a coat of tar and feathers, and ride him upon a rail, keeping him warm, meanwhile, by agitating his back by repeated applications of a black-snake whip."

***** "I would not," answered the girl, with emphasis. Ethel stated that she had known

Hundreds of People Are Slaughtered.

BODIES ARE MUTILATED

ODESSA, NOVEMBER 3, 4 P. M.—A DISPATCH FROM KISHINEFF SAYS: "A HORRIBLE MASSACRE HAS OCCURRED HERE. HUNDREDS HAVE BEEN KILLED. ALL THE HOSPITALS, PHARMACIES AND HOTELS ARE FULL OF DEAD AND MUTILATED PERSONS."

A TELEGRAM FROM NICOLAIEFF SAYS THE WHOLE TOWN IS IN THE HANDS OF BANDITS, WHO ARE DEVASTATING THE JEWISH HOUSES AND SHOPS, AND BEATING JEWS TO DEATH WITHOUT THE SLIGHTEST HINDRANCE.

THE AUTHORITIES HERE REPORT SIMILAR NEWS FROM OTHER SOUTHERN CITIES.

MANY ARE KILLED AND WOUNDED

LONDON, November 3.—A dispatch to a news agency from Odessa says: "The military patrols which are in all the streets are unable to check the disorders. Some collisions occurred in Probrazhenskia street this afternoon between the troops and the crowds. Seventeen persons were killed or wounded."

"A staff officer was killed in the street at 2 o'clock this afternoon by a bullet fired from a window. Three hundred infantry joined with the mobs in looting, but were arrested."

ODESSA, November 3, 12:42 p. m.—After a fairly quiet night, shooting again commenced this morning. The Red Cross is busy attending to the wounded.

Up to the present time no Christian shops or houses have been touched. The principal hotels are full of the better class of Jews seeking refuge from this week's disorders.

There was a veritable reign of terror on October 31 until after the Emperor's manifesto granting a constitution to Russia had been published. The Jews made the Russians furious with rage by making a prominent display of red flags, trampling on a portrait of the Emperor and tearing down the emblem of the crown.

Late in the afternoon there was fighting in the outskirts of the town and the massacre of Jews commenced and lasted during the night of November 1. All Jews found in the streets were severely beaten and many were killed in their shops, which were ruthlessly pillaged.

In the poorer Jewish quarter of the outskirts of the town whole streets were destroyed, the soldiers apparently looking on. Crowds of workmen, rowdies, women and children laden with all kinds of loot, walked openly through the streets quarreling over the spoils.

Bombs were thrown in various parts of the town. Later at night patrols of soldiers and Cossacks restored some semblance of order.

ARMED PEOPLE ARE SHOT DOWN

The pillaging was continued yesterday and there was heavy firing all over the town. Nobody was safe in the streets. People carrying arms who were caught by the troops were shot at sight. The shutters of all houses were ordered closed and people detected shooting from windows were promptly shot.

The soldiers used machine guns to clear away the crowd from the vicinity of the port. In fact, there was indiscriminate shooting everywhere in town.

Firing is still going on as this dispatch is filed. Trade is at a complete standstill. Provisions are still obtainable at greatly enhanced prices. Gas and water works are working.

It is impossible to make a correct estimate of the number of killed or wounded. Similar serious reports reach Odessa from most of the other towns in Southern Russia.

PEACEABLE CITIZENS ARE WARNED

Bodies of police, escorted by squads of infantry, are placarding the cities with notices from the Mayor appealing to all peaceable citizens to remain in doors unless the most urgent necessity takes them out.

The recriminations of the different factions in regard to the responsibility for the outbreak are bitter. Official circles blame the Jews, but the liberal leaders declare the disorders were engineered in St. Petersburg.

A leading general, in an interview today, urged that the disturbances were the result of the behavior of the Jews, who rudely shocked Russian patriotism by the manner in which they celebrated on Tuesday the publication of the imperial manifesto.

"They abused their new-found freedom," he declared, "by tearing down the national flag, hoisting revolutionary banners, insulting the Emperor and boasting that they alone gave freedom to Russia."

On the other hand the Liberal leaders say that the simultaneous manner in which the disorders broke out in many towns proved that they were dictated from St. Petersburg in revenge for the concessions recently granted and with the object of creating the impression that the Russians did not desire the new order of things.

"The Liberals contend that the Governor had all the means to stop the outbreak in the first hour and that his inactivity during the three days of massacre and his protection of the murderous rabble in the guise of patriots prove the real origin of the trouble."

NOTED ARCHITECT FALLS FROM HIS WINDOW

Louis T. Levy, Who Came to This Coast From France, Crashes on Pavement

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 3.—Dazed by an illness which he had crossed the Continent to conquer, Louis Theodore Levy, a distinguished French architect, with offices in New York, either fell or jumped today from a window of a flat on McAllister street, and was crushed to death on the cement sidewalk forty feet below.

During the summer Levy had been in the city assisting D. H. Burnham in his plans for the beautification of San Francisco. About two weeks ago, after he had returned to New York, his brother, Henry Levy, received a letter from him stating that he was threatened with a serious illness and wished to come back to the coast.

COMPLAINS OF POISON. Henry made the trip to the eastern city, and the two reached San Francisco last night, going to the residence of a distant relative, Lucien Levy. During the evening the architect complained of his condition, which he thought was the result of ptomaine poisoning. He seemed perfectly rational. This morning his brother was awakened by a cry and a crash. Springing to a window, he saw his brother's body on the sidewalk below. He believes that Louis went to the window for air, lost his balance and fell out.

Louis Levy was a native of France, aged 37 years, a pupil of Blenner in the Ecole des Beaux Arts, and came to this country as the assistant to R. Bernard, who won the Phebe Hearst competition for the University of California plans. He remained at Berkeley nearly a year and was afterwards associated with the Department of Design at the St. Louis Exposition.

HILGARD'S BOOK ON "SOILS"

GIVES RESULT OF HIS EXPERIENCE OF THIRTY YEARS.

BERKELEY, Nov. 3.—Professor Hilgard has sent to an Eastern publisher the manuscript and drawings for his book on "Soils," which it is expected will be placed before the public early next year. The book is the fruit of thirty years' study by Professor Hilgard, who has been recognized as an authority in his field. For thirty years Professor Hilgard has been connected with the University of California, taking his first leave of absence last summer, when the Regents gave him a year's leave of absence.

His work on the book was delayed somewhat by an affliction of the eyes. He was given assistance, however, by Dr. Loughridge and others, but all work was done under Professor Hilgard's immediate supervision.

SEDALIA, Mo., Nov. 3.—Robbers early today wrecked the vault and safe of the Bank of Creighton, at Creighton, Cass county, and escaped with $4,000.

BRIDE'S SUDDEN DEATH

Passes Away While Her Husband is at Work.

ALAMEDA, November 3.—Mrs. Clara Elizabeth Hansbrow, a bride of about four months and the wife of Howard M. Hansbrow, well known in this city, was claimed by death last evening after an illness of about four months' duration.

Mrs. Hansbrow was apparently as well as usual in the morning, and during the forenoon attended to her household. Her husband had left her in her usual health when he went to his business in San Francisco, but in the afternoon was taken suddenly ill. Mr. Hansbrow was shocked on his return in the evening to find that she had passed away.

Dr. A. A. Stafford was called to attend the unfortunate lady, but his medical aid proved of no avail and she passed away at 5 o'clock at her home, 1633 Verdi street.

An autopsy was held this morning by Dr. Stafford when it was found that death was due to heart disease. The deceased was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Reid of 1632 Eagle avenue, and before her marriage which occurred last June was a teacher in the Alameda School Department. She was a prominent member and worker in the First Baptist Church and was in charge of the primary class in the Sunday School. She was a native of California, aged 23 years. Besides her parents Mrs. Hansbrow leaves two sisters, Mrs. H. L. Kemp and Mrs. C. B. Preston. Her untimely death is deplored by the church people and all who knew her.

The funeral service will be conducted by Rev. Gilman Parker, pastor of the Baptist Church, who will be assisted by Rev. W. P. Spencer of Berkeley, formerly the pastor here.

ATTEMPTS MURDER

"When the Marshal said he would wait outside the restaurant, what did you do?" asked Leach.

"He gave me a teaspoonful of laudanum, and took a dose himself."

"Where did he get the laudanum?"

"In Ashland."

"Did you know what it was?"

"Yes; I knew we might die if we drank it."

"Ethel, why did you go away?" asked Judge Samuels, gently.

"Because he wanted me to, and I thought I cared for him," was the simple reply.

Nothing was brought out at the hearing about Logan's police record.

He was arrested at Sacramento for safe-cracking, and in San Francisco for robbing telephone boxes. He was acquitted of both charges.

The cross-examination of the Cool girl will begin tomorrow morning.

MOTOR CYCLIST INJURED

Thurlow Crafts, the seventeen-year-old son of H. A. Crafts, of Fruitvale Avenue and the County Road, while riding a motor bicycle this afternoon, had a collision with a United States mail wagon near the postoffice on Broadway. He was hurled violently to the pavement, striking on the back of his head, producing a contusion and fracture of the skull. He was an employee of the Columbia bicycle shop on Broadway, and has lived in California about two years, coming here from Colorado with his family.

He was taken to the Receiving Hospital, where Dr. Hamlin made an examination of his injuries.

SHIP CALKER IS FOUND DEAD

ALAMEDA, November 3.—Charles Groves, employed at Dicky's Ship Yards near the Webster street bridge, and who was a ship calker by occupation, dropped dead about 10 o'clock this morning while at work in the yards. Death is supposed to have been due to heart disease.

James Glenson was working next to Groves when he had the fatal attack which took him off. He saw the man throw back his head and drop his tools, and at the same time he fell from the stool on which he was sitting. When assistance reached him he was found to be dead.

The body was removed to the local branch morgue where an inquest will be held. The deceased was 65 years of age and resided at 31 Cumberland street, San Francisco. He has been employed at Dicky's Ship Yard off and on for thirty years.

FOUR CITIZENS PASS AWAY

Mrs. Jeanette Seabright, aged 88 years, died yesterday at her residence, 625 El Dorado street. She was a native of this State and had resided in this city for the last four years. The funeral will be held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock from her late residence.

LEAVES THREE CHILDREN.

Mrs. Margaret Feucht, wife of the late Conrad Feucht, died last night at her residence, 1705 San Pablo avenue, aged 72 years. Three children, Mrs. F. E. Haskell, Mrs. Louis Meyer and William Feucht, survive her. The funeral will be held next Monday morning at 9 o'clock from the Church of the Sacred Heart. The interment will be in St. Mary's cemetery.

ONE SON SURVIVES.

Thomas J. Cavagnaro, a native of Italy, aged 71 years, died at his home in West Oakland last night. A son, Antonio Cavagnaro, survives him.

A NATIVE DAUGHTER.

Mrs. Maggie E. Price, aged 41 years, died last night at the Central Hospital. She was a native daughter and had resided in this city for the most of her life. She was proprietor of the Erie House on San Pablo avenue. A son, Leland L. Price, survives her. The funeral will be held tomorrow.

FINLAND ALSO HAS ITS STRIKE TROUBLES.

HELSINKI, Finland, Nov. 3.—The municipal council has formed a committee of public safety. It also has notified the strike committee that it considers itself to be in a position to maintain order and has raised $2,000 for this purpose.

The council, which meets daily, has appointed a special committee to confer with the strike committee when the latter requests advice on important questions.

WALK TWELVE MILES.

"How did you go from Ashland to Medford?"

"We walked; it was only twelve miles."

The girl then told how they were in hiding for a day, without food, near Ashland. She said that they assumed a new name every place they went, and they had great fun thinking up romantic cognomens.

"Did you meet anyone you knew during your travels?" was asked.

"Yes," was the reply. "In going from Ashland to Medford I met Edith Fish, a girl with whom I used to go to school."

Then came the startling story of the

ORDNANCE TESTS TO FURTHER PARK IMPROVEMENT

ARMY REPORT STATES MUCH VALUABLE EXPERIENCE BEEN GAINED.

WASHINGTON, November 3.—The Board of Ordnance and Fortifications of the army in its annual report says:

"Many tests have been conducted during the year of new designs of offensive and defensive appliances. The principal work connected with the sea coast defense has included tests to determine the kinds of armor and their angular presentation against which projectiles having delay and non-delay action fuses should be used to the relative value of capped and uncapped mortar shells when fired at striking angles of 50 and 75 degrees, the distance from the unprotected hull of war vessels within which projectiles charged with high explosives must be detonated in the water to prove destructive, and the most efficient shape of shield for mounts for rapid fire guns. The principal work connected with the field service has included tests of trenching tools and automatic pistols."

MONEY IS LACKING.

"Much valuable information has resulted from these tests."

"Many appeals have been made for financial assistance in the development of the new designs."

"The board has uniformly declined to give such aid until the design shall have been brought to a state of practical operation without the aid of government funds."

The board recommends appropriations by Congress to provide a reserve supply of ammunition of at least 100 rounds for each gun in the coast defense as soon as mounted, an ample allowance of ammunition for the annual target practice, a sufficient allowance for sub-calibre and machine gun practice; purchase of range finders and other instruments for fire control; the installation of additional searchlight cable for conducting electric power at the various parts of the fortifications and furnishing the essential lines of communication and material necessary for the mine defense of the principal harbors.

The adoption of a revised system fire control already approved by bureau chiefs is recommended.

GRAND DUKE HAS LOST HIS POSITION.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 3.—The Grand Duke Michaelovitch, brother of Emperor Nicholas, has been relieved of the post of head of the Department of Mercantile Marine.

The Department of Mercantile Marine is to be merged with the new Ministry of Commerce, which probably accounts for the Grand Duke's removal from duty as head of that department. He is the last of the influential quintette of grand dukes who have been the advisers of the Emperor, Grand Dukes Alexis and Michael, Nicholas and Paul.

The charge of disturbing the peace preferred against A. W. Wilson, by his brother, J. P. Wilson, was continued a month this morning by Police Judge Smith. If the accused brother conducts himself in a becoming manner the charge will be dismissed.

GRAND DUKE SERGIUS WAS ASSASSINATED AT MOSCOW FEBRUARY 18.

AN ODOROUS COMPARISON.

"That'll be a powerful machine," said a native of the north of Scotland to a motorist the other day.

"Yes; it's a splendid car," replied the owner, proudly.

"I suppose a car like that will be nearly a hundred horse-power," suggested the countryman.

"Oh, no," said the motorist, modestly. "It is only ten-horse. A hundred horse-power is very much larger."

"I wasn't going by the size," the Highlander dray explained. "It was going by the smell of it."—New York World.

AUTOISTS HURRY AWAY

INJURE HORSE SO BADLY THAT HE HAS TO BE KILLED.

BERKELEY, Nov. 3.—A big automobile supposed to belong to parties in Oakland, collided with a four-horse team belonging to the Spring Construction Company at Virginia and Milvia streets, at noon today. The machine struck one of the horses, injuring him so severely that it was necessary to shoot the animal.

The automobile was not very much damaged in the collision, and the persons who were directing it went their way without making reparation for the accident. The Construction Company people reported this afternoon that no information of the accident, so far as the names of the people responsible for it are concerned, have been given to them. They expect to hear from their driver later the full particulars.

The automobile was going at a high rate of speed, and had just reached the foot of the hill when it struck the Construction Company's horse.

FRENCH CARE OF CHILDREN.

(From T. P.'s Weekly.)

I will not go into such a vexed question as the French theory with regard to the limitation of the population; suffice it here to say that it is grounded, whether right or wrong, on a great and solemn sense of the responsibility of parenthood.

No true, honest, honorable Frenchman or Frenchwoman thinks it justifiable to bring children into the world without having a fair certainty of these children having their chance of a happy and prosperous life.

For a Frenchman to leave a daughter, brought up in comfort and even luxury, without means and the slave of destiny, would be a crime which he would regard as almost the worst of sins.

I have heard an Irishwoman who had lived nearly all her life in France, say, in good-humored exaggeration, that a Frenchman could be tempted to almost any crime to leave his daughter a proper dot.

NO NEED OF CONSUMPTION.

(G. W. Galeebey in London Outlook.)

If mankind united tomorrow in common purpose against a common foe, tuberculosis could be exterminated in a few decades or less. The land in whose capital a human eye first rested upon the creature which has closed so many eyes forever has already witnessed a signal and progressive decrease in the tuberculosis death-rate. Notwithstanding the incessant movement of the population in most civilized countries, as in our own, from the country to the cities, the tuberculosis death-rate is falling far and wide—though nowhere, I believe, so fast as in wise Germany.

TO FURTHER PARK IMPROVEMENT

MAYOR MOTT AND ARCHITECT INSPECT INDEPENDENCE SQUARE.

Architect W. D. Cook, who was formerly connected with Olmsted Brothers of Boston, the famous designers of landscape scenes, and Mayor Mott this afternoon inspected Independence Square with a view of having it laid out in an artistic manner. A crew of men is soon to be put to work and Mayor wishes to have some plan which will beautify the property owned by the city. Mr. Cook believes he can make the park one of great attractiveness.

A MARBLE BOAT HOUSE.

Oakland will probably have the finest boat house in the world if all the plans of the City Council and Mayor Mott do not go astray. The Mayor has received from San Francisco architects a general plan of a boat house to be constructed in the style of Greek architecture. There will be twenty pillars all of classic design. Those in the center will probably be constructed of marble, while the other supports will be of granite. It is the purpose of the administration, as soon as the grave problems confronting the city government are out of the way, to take up the matter of adorning the lake and making it the most talked of beauty spot in all of California. While all of the plans are in embryo now, there is no question but what they will be considered later.

WIRELESS PLANT PUT IN USE.

BERLIN, Nov. 3.—Wireless telegraph is in use between Peterhof and Memel, the nearest point in Prussian territory where the government land lines are available. A small German cruiser, the Luebeck, lies at Memel, while between there and Peterhof are ten German torpedo boats telegraphing, doubtless, with the consent of the Russian Emperor, but the precise object is only a subject for conjecture.

STILL HELD BY LAW.

James T. Stovall, a sewing machine agent, succeeded in having one charge of misdemeanor embezzlement preferred against him dismissed this morning in Police Judge Smith's court, but H. Austin, a furniture dealer, immediately swore to another complaint. This case was set down for trial on November 22d.

MAY ESCAPE SENTENCE.

The charge of disturbing the peace preferred against A. W. Wilson, by his brother, J. P. Wilson, was continued a month this morning by Police Judge Smith. If the accused brother conducts himself in a becoming manner the charge will be dismissed.

FERRY LOSES SAILOR

Yerba Buena Reports His Death of Two Days Ago

It was reported at the morgue today by the captain of the Yerba Buena ferry-boat, that Theodore Johnson, a deck hand fell overboard on November 1 and was drowned. The morgue officials state they cannot be expected to make a search for the luckless sailor.

The man fell overboard between Goat Island and San Francisco. An effort was made to save him but it failed.

THEY WORSHIP SMALLPOX.

"They worship smallpox in Western Hindustan," said the missionary. His auditors gave a gasp of horror. "But don't misunderstand me. Don't get a wrong impression," he resumed. "I don't mean to say that they love smallpox and desire it. On the contrary, they loathe and fear it. Hence their worship, a worship born of hate and terror."

"They have a goddess of smallpox. She has a cruel face, two mouths, four red hands. They pray to her regularly. Fresh flowers are always lying at her feet. A special priest tends her shrine. And much time and money are wasted on this goddess that might better be devoted to the purchase and application of some good pure vaccine virus."

WOMAN LOSES RAZORS.

Mrs. A. Julerst, residing at 846 Sixty-first street, reported to the police today that her residence was entered last night, by means of a key during her absence, and that five razors were taken.

LOGAN'S TRIAL

he had written her love letters almost daily, and how he had rented a letter box at the postoffice that their correspondence might not be interrupted.

LOVING TERMS.

In all these letters, she said, he addressed her in terms of endearment. These letters, she declared, she either tore or burned, according to her lover's instructions.

"Who suggested that you go away together?" asked Leach.

"Mr. Logan," was the reply.

"When was that?"

"About October 10."

"Did you ever ask him to take you away?"

"Never."

AS BROTHER AND SISTER.

"What did he say about going?"

"He said we would go as brother and sister; that he would send me to school, and that, in a year or two, when he was separated from his wife, he would marry me."

"Who told you what time the train left?"

"He did."

"Where were you then?"

"At the Library, where we sometimes met."

"Did you wear the same hat and coat you wore when you left your home?"

"No; Mr. Logan gave me a new hat and coat at the Sixteenth street depot."

"What did you do with the old ones?"

"He threw them out of the window at Red Bluff."

PLAN TO DECEIVE.

"What was your final destination?"

"We were to go to Canas, near Seattle, where I was to go to school; and he was to go to work. I was to pass as his sister."

"Where did you go?"

"We went first to Lemolue, then to Slisson, then to Ashland, and finally to Medford, where he was arrested."

WALK TWELVE MILES.

"How did you go from Ashland to Medford?"

"We walked; it was only twelve miles."

The girl then told how they were in hiding for a day, without food, near Ashland. She said that they assumed a new name every place they went, and they had great fun thinking up romantic cognomens.

"Did you meet anyone you knew during your travels?" was asked.

"Yes," was the reply. "In going from Ashland to Medford I met Edith Fish, a girl with whom I used to go to school."

Then came the startling story of the

ATTEMPTS MURDER

"When the Marshal said he would wait outside the restaurant, what did you do?" asked Leach.

"He gave me a teaspoonful of laudanum, and took a dose himself."

"Where did he get the laudanum?"

"In Ashland."

"Did you know what it was?"

"Yes; I knew we might die if we drank it."

"Ethel, why did you go away?" asked Judge Samuels, gently.

"Because he wanted me to, and I thought I cared for him," was the simple reply.

Nothing was brought out at the hearing about Logan's police record.

He was arrested at Sacramento for safe-cracking, and in San Francisco for robbing telephone boxes. He was acquitted of both charges.

The cross-examination of the Cool girl will begin tomorrow morning.

MOTOR CYCLIST INJURED

Thurlow Crafts, the seventeen-year-old son of H. A. Crafts, of Fruitvale Avenue and the County Road, while riding a motor bicycle this afternoon, had a collision with a United States mail wagon near the postoffice on Broadway. He was hurled violently to the pavement, striking on the back of his head, producing a contusion and fracture of the skull. He was an employee of the Columbia bicycle shop on Broadway, and has lived in California about two years, coming here from Colorado with his family.

He was taken to the Receiving Hospital, where Dr. Hamlin made an examination of his injuries.

MARY KILLED BY MOB

Russia's Turbulent People
However Are Quiet-
ing Down.

ST. PETERSBURG, November 3, 11:50 p. m.—The national holiday today in celebration of the anniversary of the Emperor's accession to the throne, was marked by the funeral of a girl, the general strike in St. Petersburg. While the railroad strike has not yet been declared off many of the railroad men are returning to work and trains are being gotten through. The populace is calmer, but deplorable rioting in the provinces is still in progress. In the South where most horrible stories of massacre and pillage by mobs and attacks upon Jews continue to pour in. The news from Odessa is meagre, but enough has been received to show that the city for a time was practically in the hands of the mob. The numbers killed or wounded are not definitely established, but the London report that 5000 were killed or wounded is undoubtedly a very great exaggeration. The situation at Kiev is also more calm.

EMPEROR STILL THERE.
The episode of revolutionary manifestations which have dominated the promulgation of the constitution played into the hands of Count Witte's enemies at court, who were momentarily overthrown and they are beginning to talk of the necessity for the sternest measures of repression to prevent the whole country from being drawn into the vortex of a revolution.

There is no truth in the rumor circulated in certain quarters that the Emperor has fled abroad. According to reports, the reactionaries have a powerful ally in the Emperor, who desires the autocratic power of the Romanoffs to be handed down unimpaired to her son. The decision of the strike committee to call off the strike at noon today was resolved with joy by all classes of the population, as the absence of newspapers, electric light and other conveniences of life is severely felt. The railroad men, however, have resolved to continue the strike, which entails a continuance of the high prices of provisions.

A COMMON BURIAL.
A great demonstration is promised for Sunday, when the bodies of the victims of the conflicts of Tuesday will be interred. The strike committee sent a deputation to Count Witte to-day and informed him that the workmen would preserve order at the funeral. The amnesty did not appear this morning and the radicals are impatiently demanding the immediate release of all political prisoners. The censorship throughout Russia, however, was abolished today, not only to the newspapers, but also in the case of the private telegrams. The Minister of the Interior has notified the editors that the regulations for the control of the press are no longer in force.

Count Witte is having trouble in forming a cabinet, owing to the lack of liberal support. Senator Koni has resigned the portfolio of Justice, and Prince Eugene Trochitsky, brother of the late Rector of the Moscow University, is said to have not even replied to the tender of the Ministry of Education.

TAKEN TO HOSPITAL AND THEN TO JAIL.

In company with several other youths, 18-year-old B. Edwards returned at 10:30 o'clock this morning by railway from Martinez. At Sixteenth street station Edwards was so intoxicated when he alighted from the train that he broke away from the hands of two companions who were trying to lead him from the car and fell backwards, striking his head upon a car track, inflicting an ugly-looking gash in his scalp. The police patrol wagon conveyed Edwards to the Receiving Hospital where his head was bandaged after which operation he was taken to the City Prison to sleep off his "jag."

Meyer, however, is not an ordinary beggar. He is the associate and companion in crime with a noted band of American crooks, and it is believed that he was in Berkeley for the purpose of investigating the field here and reporting to his confederates, some of whom are in the Nebraska penitentiary.

found in the pockets of young Meyer it was learned that the youth had been in close communication with a convict in the Nebraska State Prison who was sentenced to a life term. He was also corresponding with a crook in the same prison whose term expires in December of this year. The boy had been sending money to both of these crooks, and he was undoubtedly planning to join the convict who was to be released from the Nebraska state prison at Christmas time. Had not Marshal Vollmer arrested Meyer and sent the young criminal to jail he might have begun a series of crimes here such as were planned by the gang which Policeman LeStrange routed, or the more horrible series of misdeeds contemplated by the fugitive murderer, Milton Franklin Andrews.

NO ORDINARY "VAG."

In passing sentence on Meyer today Judge Edgar remarked that he was aware that he was dealing with no ordinary vagrant, but on the contrary all the evidence showed the prisoner to be a desperate character, an associate of daring criminals and enemies to society, and for that reason Judge Edgar unhesitatingly gave him the limit, six months in jail.

The young man will be watched after his release from jail thinking that other gangs of desperate criminals may be brought to capture and punishment.

Attempt Made to Rob the Vallejo Postoffice
Fails.

VALEJO, Nov. 3.—The Vallejo postoffice was entered by burglars some time between 1 and 5 o'clock this morning. Both the large postoffice safe and the postmaster's private safe were broken open with chisels, soap being used to deaden the noise. Many stamps were taken and registered letters were opened, but the robbers failed to reach the inner compartment of the postoffice safe which contained $1500 in cash. An electric light was burning in the office all night and the police say they visited the place four times during the early morning.

It is supposed that an entrance was effected from the rear, possibly by some small person being put through the iron bars over a window, so that the door could be opened from the inside.

The work was evidently done by experts, and the police think they may be the same persons who attempted a safe robbery in Watsonville on Wednesday night.

CHILD RESCUES MOTHER

Saves Her From Being Shot by Angry Chinese.

Little ten-year-old Nevada Ely had an exciting experience yesterday morning with a murderous Chinaman, and had it not been for her bravery and presence of mind, both she and her mother would probably have met with death.

Mrs. Ely conducts a small store at 1717 Twelfth street. Loo Hin, a Chinese employed at the Pacific Coast Cannery, near Sixteenth street station, called at Mrs. Ely's store yesterday morning to make some purchases.

A trivial dispute occurred during which the Chinaman drew a loaded revolver and was about to shoot when little Nevada seized him by the arm, shouting to her mother to escape. The screams of the child frightened the Chinaman who ran away.

Neighbors who had been attracted by the child's screams rushed to the scene and when they found that the Chinaman had escaped they started for the cannery where Loo Hin was employed. They demanded that the Chinaman should be out to them, and when the officials failed to produce him they made a raid on the place, searching through the entire building.

CHINESE FOUND HIDING

Detective Holland, who had been detailed on the case went to the cannery and found the Chinaman hidden under the floor. He was arrested by Detective Holland and a charge of exhibiting a pistol in a threatening manner was placed against him.

Mrs. Ely and her daughter were alone in the store at the time the Chinaman came in to purchase some pies. A dispute arose as to price asked by Mrs. Ely. Before she was aware he had pulled a pistol from his rear pocket and was about to pull the trigger when Nevada went to the rescue. Mrs. Ely was so overcome by her experience that she fell to the floor exhausted. Loo Hin succeeded in freeing himself from the girl's grasp and for a moment it was thought that he would shoot Nevada for he pointed the pistol at her. But fearing the crowd which he thought the girl's screams would attract, he made his escape going in the direction of the cannery. The little girl then telephoned to the police notifying them of what had taken place.

MADE THREATS BEFORE.

This is not the first time that Loo Hin has made threats against Mrs. Ely, according to her story.

In speaking of the affair yesterday morning she said: "I feel that I owe my life to my little daughter. She saved both of us from the murderous brute. His pulling of the pistol from his pocket was so sudden that my heart came right up in my mouth, and I was ready to faint with fright."

"He tried to bully me once before. This morning he came into the store and bought several pies and cakes, 30 cents worth in all. He offered me a quarter for the lot, which I refused. He insisted, and tried to pick up the things, which were on my counter. I seized a pie worth five cents and his quarter, leaving him the rest. It was then that he took his pistol from his pocket."

"The man who was arrested is the same one who came into my store and pulled his pistol on me. I identify him positively, although he had changed his clothes after he left my place and before he was caught."

Little Nevada Ely said she thought nothing of seeing the armed Chinaman. She said she knew that her mother was in danger, and that if she had not done so her mother would probably have been dead now.

"I did not stop to think of anything," she jumped out and grabbed him by the arm that's all. I do not think I was afraid either before or after I grabbed him, but I do not want to have to do it again. I might not be so lucky in keeping him from shooting my mamma and me."

HAS BOTH HIS EYES FILLED WITH PARTICLES.

Robert Gibson, a resident of South Park in San Francisco but employed in the United Engineering Works in this city, called at the Receiving Hospital late last evening to have a small particle of cancer removed from his right eye. Early this morning he was so unfortunate while at work as to have a piece of steel penetrate his left eye and he again sought relief at the hands of the surgeon. Dr. Borchart at the hospital Gibson now has both of his eyes badly inflamed and will probably have to remain idle for a few days.

LABEL LEAGUE IS ACTIVE

BEGINS MEETINGS AT NEW HEADQUARTERS FURNISHED BY LABOR COUNCIL.

The Oakland Label League met Thursday evening at 463 Eighth street, where headquarters have been donated to them by the Central Labor Council. Miss Mae Hampton, president, who has recovered from her recent illness, occupied the chair.

Attention of the ladies present was called to "Egg-o-Seg," the only one of the many breakfast foods bearing the union label. There are some manufacturers of breakfast foods in Oakland and it was decided to make an attempt to unionize them.

Mrs. Williamson, president of the Women's Equal Suffrage League, gave the present very interesting talk on the power of the label and the desirability of extending it to women. She stated, among other items, that the Equal Suffrage League of County State and National, made it a part of their business requirements that the label of the union printing trades should be on all their printing.

WAITERS' PRESENT.

President H. H. Hollander and Secretary Frank W. Overton of the Cooks' and Waiters' Union were present and gave a picture of the present situation as regards unionization of restaurants, etc.

A number of applications for membership were received and initiation will take place at the next meeting.

The Central Labor Council has kindly provided for them a place of meeting, the Label League will hereafter meet regularly on the second and fourth Thursday evenings of each month.

The fight now on for general acceptance of the eight-hour day in the printing trade over the United States is coming to a head. It seems to be going slowly but surely in favor of the shorter work day.

TURN IT DOWN.

"The local situation in Philadelphia has assumed a somewhat threatening aspect. The National Typographic Union, looking for a soft spot on which to meet the International Typographic Union, has put up a proposition coupled with an ultimatum giving four days' notice, that we must sign a contract for three years for the nine-hour day. What happened in the largest meeting in the history of Philadelphia Union, No. 2, over 600 members being present, the Typographic ultimatum was unanimously turned down and a resolution passed declaring that if any Typographic office put the ultimatum into effect and discharged any one of our members who declined to sign the individual agreement that that office would immediately be struck, and any ## other office that might handle strike-bound work

FEW LOCKOUTS.

"Up to the present time (October 24) only four offices have locked out their men and not more than thirty-five in all are involved in the controversy. It is likely that some of the larger offices will break away from the Typographic and other troubles will then be reduced to a minimum. Tremendous pressure was brought to bear upon the Philadelphia Typographic to precipitate this fight, the United Typographic believing that decisive victory in Philadelphia in a brief time would enhance their chances of success in the rest of the country." The same letter claims that the employers' association of Philadelphia and other Eastern centers are widely circulating the misinformation that many large printing offices in San Francisco have gone back to the longer workday, movement. The eight-hour movement is a failure in that city.

FAVORABLE REPORT.

The Los Angeles Typographic Union has voted favorably upon the proposition to levy a 50-cent weekly assessment on each member to increase the fund to further the eight-hour day movement. The union will therefore forward for its 330 members $165 a week. This assessment becomes effective next Monday, and there are 40,000 members of the international, and at the same time would place in the hands of the international on January 1 the sum of $100,000 with which to further the fight for the shorter workday.

Reports from other large cities are as follows: Minneapolis—Everything appears in good shape here.

S. Paul—Twenty-eight shops signed. Getting important men—fastest than Typographic gets them in. Three shops did up. Everything satisfactory.

Chicago—Central Labor Council, Printing and Publishing Company signed today. Ten shops, two Typographic, employing thirty-four men, working under agreement.

FOOD DOES IT

Curious How Right Food Rebuilds Body.

The benefits of the good, red blood made by Grape-Nuts food is described in a letter from Chicago.

"I was for years sadly afflicted with hemorrhoids caused by constipation, which was the result of impure blood supplied by food not adapted to the needs of the body under certain conditions. My trouble extended to rectal hemorrhoids which greatly reduced my strength. A surgical operation gave me no relief and I was compelled finally to quit business."

"Luckily, just when things were looking the blackest, some one recommended Grape-Nuts food as a desirable article of diet, and I began (Dec. 1903) its use, and in a few months brought my health back to me."

"The action of my bowels is free and regular now, and this has brought relief from the hemorrhoids. At the same time a neurotic trouble which had been growing on me and which the doctors could never do anything for, has also disappeared. All this return to health I am free to say I owe to Grape-Nuts food." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. There's a reason. Read the little book, "The Road to Wellville," in plgs.

IN OUR SISTER CITY.

Cigar-makers' Union, No. 228, at a special meeting last night at the Hotel Hamilton appointed a committee, consisting of Nicholas Blum, L. Brodie, L. Salomon, E. L. Foster, E. Bonap, J. Ramon and Charles Smith, to wait on the employers today and present the new wage schedule recently adopted by the organization and endorsed by the national body. The new price list demands an increase varying from 5 to 7 per cent on all makes of cigars.

The schedule is to become effective on next Monday morning, there are sixty shops and 425 men affected. All craftsmen employed in the city to make more effective the boycott against the unfair bath houses at Seventh and Mission and Bush and Larkin streets.

The District Council of Painters Thursday night decided that next Tuesday, election day, should be a legal holiday for all members of the craft. A line of $5 will be imposed on any painter who works on that day.

Musicians' Mutual Protective Union, No. 10, on Thursday night, at its headquarters at 207 Powell street, the union has taken the third floor of the building. There is an assembly hall, billiard room, library and other amusements on that day.

IN WASHINGTON, D. C.

A telegram, dated November 2, says: A committee representing the letter carriers of the United States waited upon Postmaster-General Cortelyou and presented a memorial urging better pay for carriers. The memorial calls attention to the fact that there has been no change in the payment of salaries for more than forty years.

Postmaster-General told the committee that he would give the memorial his fullest consideration. The committee was composed of members of the executive board, National Association of Letter Carriers.

THE LATEST

GERMANY'S PROPOSED
PLANSProposition to End the Much Dreaded
"Tariff War."

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—Baron Speck von Sternburg, the German Ambassador, is expected to present in a few days to the State Department the basis upon which his government is willing to enter upon negotiations with the United States Government for a new trade treaty or some kind of an arrangement that will stave off the dread "tariff war," which otherwise the department officials fear must certainly begin within four months. The State Department has so far failed to admit the German contention regarding the "arrangement" under Section 2 of the Dingley Act, by the terms of which the United States secures favored nation treatment in the matter of trade with Germany.

This Germany view was based on the fact that new treaties, exclusive in terms had just been made with a number of European countries, and that America was debarred from claiming the benefits of the special low customs rates named unless she entered into a special convention with Germany. But attention has now been called to the fact that this Dingley Act "arrangement" is by its own terms terminable upon one month's notice from either party, and it is not doubted that after the effect upon the vitality of the European treaties, Germany will give the requisite month's notice before March 1 next, and thus terminate the life of the arrangement beyond question.

WHALES HAS RICH
CARGOONE OF THE ARCTIC FLEET THAT ESCAPES GETS HOME.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 3.—The whaling steamer William Baylies, one of the vessels which escaped the grip of the Arctic sea, arrived here today with over 30,000 pounds of whalebone, and the oil from sixteen whales. The value of her cargo is estimated at $150,000. Captain Bodfish, of the Baylies, first sent from Unalakleet the news that the whaling fleet had been caught in the ice. Experienced whaling men here think it impossible for all of the imprisoned vessels to remain intact until the ice opens, and those which do so will have to face the danger of the breaking up of the ice floes in the spring.

The whaling bark California arrived here today from the South seas.

MOFFITT ESTATE

Mrs. Augusta L. Moffitt, widow of the late Frank J. Moffitt, appeared in Judge Ogden's court this morning in support of her petition for distribution of her husband's estate.

No sooner had Mrs. Moffitt been sworn as a witness today, than Attorney John J. McDonald, representing Attorney Garrett McEnaney, who is counsel for the estate of the late Senator Moffitt, asked that the matter of consideration of the petition go over until Monday next when the petition of the Misses Moffitt is to be heard asking that $40,000 be set aside for their maintenance, and that interest be paid upon that sum to them as contemplated in their brother's will.

Mrs. Moffitt had an application in for an increase of her family allowance from $500 to $1,000 a month.

This matter, together with her petition for distribution of the Ogden estate, was continued to Monday, Judge Ogden stating that he did not suppose it would prove too much of a hardship for Mrs. Moffitt to again attend court.

The Judge also indicated that the request for an increase of family allowance would at that time be granted.

PROBING
RAILWAY
FRAUDSPresident of Armour Car
Lines on the Grill.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—George E. Robbins, of Chicago, president of the Armour car lines, was called as a witness today in the private car inquiry before the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Mr. Robbins had testified that the Armour car line operates 12,500 cars, and was about to arrange a query as to the capital stock of the company when Attorney Eickman of the Armour Company interposed an objection that the Armour line was not engaged in interstate commerce and averred therefore that the Commission had no jurisdiction.

Mr. Robbins also testified in support of Mr. Eickman's contention that the Armour car line is not engaged in the transportation business, but solely in the business of leasing cars and furnishing refrigeration. He asserted that the respondent railroads have no part in fixing charges for transportation.

ARE IN FRUIT BUSINESS.

Issue was taken by Attorney Barry with the testimony of the witness, Mr. Barry said that he could show that the Armour car lines are engaged in the fruit and produce business.

Mr. Robbins, in answer to a query previously put, said the company is not in the fruit or produce business.

J. E. Call, of Los Angeles, who has assisted Mr. Barry and who also is acting for California fruit interests, then took charge of the examination and under instruction of counsel, Mr. Robbins declined to answer a number of questions. Chairman Knapp announced that the Commission would confer as to the character of questions it would require the witness to answer.

George Tait, refrigerating manager of the California Fruit Growers' Exchange, testified briefly in relation to the details of icing cars.

MAKES A PANIC
ON WHALERCRAZY SAILOR RUNS AMUCK AND TOSSED OTHER MEN ABOUT.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 3.—The whaling bark California, which arrived from a two-years' cruise in the South Seas this afternoon, reports a story of wild panic on board when one of the men, Manuel Costa, well known along the water-front as "Foggy," ran amuck among the crew. Costa is one of the most powerful men in the whaling fleet, and when he was stricken with temporary insanity he tossed the other sailors about the deck of the whaler like tennis balls. Time and again he seemed to have recovered from his dementia, only to attempt the lives of his shipmates when released from the hold, where he has spent a good share of his time since leaving here, in iron.

Costa's trouble is thought to be largely due to homesickness and it is expected he will recover his balance ashore.

SAYS HIS ACCOUNT
WAS STUFFEDGRAND JURY INDICTS A SUPER-VISOR FOR ALLEGED FRAUD.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 3.—Everett B. Thomas, former supervisor of the Government forest reserves in Southern California, was indicted today by the United States Grand Jury charged with having presented false and fictitious claims for expenses to the Secretary of the Interior during his incumbency. There are fifteen counts against the former Supervisor. The court fixed bonds in the sum of $2,500 which he gave.

ONLY SMALL SUMS.

The counts returned against Thomas are for alleged false entries of small sums of money claimed to have been incurred for the hire of saddle horses, feed for animals for rangers, sharpening of tools, wages of men fighting fires in the San Gabriel reserve purchase of cement and patrolling the San Bernardino reserve. The first alleged fraudulent claim was filed in February, 1903, and the last is alleged to have been presented last January. The sums alleged to have been wrongfully collected by the former Supervisor will not exceed $500.

COUNT COUNTY CASH.

The money in the county treasury was counted this morning by Chairman John Mitchell of the Board of Supervisors, County Auditor T. W. Bacon and District Attorney J. J. Allen by Deputy District Attorney Everett E. Brown. There was found to be $1,039,884.08. Since the last counting, on October 6, there has been received into the treasury $6,748.08.

Judge Mogan declared his belief that their evidence was the truth.

But despite his "Josh" embezzlement, and the fact that it was clearly shown he had committed perjury, "slats" is free. Mike Fisher, the manager of the Tigers and Buck Franks, the Oakland shortstop, will never have an opportunity to select a jury for the purpose of trying him on a felony charge.

MUST BE AWAY
A YEARActress Loses Suit For Support Upon a Technicality.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 3.—Lulu Mayall sued her husband, Herschel J. Mayall, leading man at the Central Theater, for permanent support and maintenance, alleging desertion on April 18, 1905. She asked that she be awarded $200 a month alimony, $500 for counsel fees and for costs of suit.

Mayall demurred to his wife's complaint on the ground that it did not state facts sufficient to base a cause for action.

Judge Hebbard today sustained the demurrer, taking the same position as Judge Sewall in the case of Loomis vs. Loomis and contrary to the position of Judge Graham in the case of Collins vs. Collins.

Judge Hebbard interprets the law that the desertion of the husband must have continued for one year in order to give the wife such a cause for action.

The court in its opinion says: "There are many reasons for some limitation of the period of desertion. One reason would be that without a limitation the wife could maintain the action one day after she was married. She might maintain it the morning after a night of marital misunderstanding, which could have been adjusted between her and her husband before they went to sleep the night after."

"She might maintain it forsooth, because he remained a night or two under his old mother's roof."

"These, of course, are extreme instances, but they would be possible under a law of unlimited period of desertion."

There is just as much reason for making the one year period in this class of cases necessary as in forbidding marriage after divorce for a period of one year, and in the mind of the court far greater reason in the one than in the other case.

"In any event the Legislature possessed the right to determine the period of the statute of the law. Section 137, as passed in 1905, and it determined in favor of the one year term of desertion."

Judge Hebbard holds that section 187 of the Civil Code is a constitutional act of the Legislature.

In conclusion the court says: "The demurrer is sustained and the action ordered dismissed."

HAZERS
CRUEL
TO BOYAuthorities Think He Was Tied to Railroad Ties.

MOUNT VERNON, Ohio, November 3.—Having secured testimony that at least one victim of hazing at Kenyon College, Paul Barber—and possibly others, had been tied to railroad tracks, the investigation into the death of young Stuart Pierson was continued today by the coroner.

Pierson was killed last Saturday night by a locomotive at Gambler, under circumstances which suggested that he might have been tied to the rails.

Today testimony in the Pierson inquest developed the fact that the boy was lying prostrate on the tracks when the engine struck him. The witnesses examined were President Pierce of Kenyon College, Henry Beam, a student, and W. H. Stamp, a round house employe who cleaned the engine after its arrival at Mount Vernon. The previous evidence that it was the custom of the fraternity men to tie the candidates to the tracks was corroborated in today's testimony.

SAW ROPE MARKS.

President Pierce's examination lasted over two hours and was severe. He saw the marks on the body described as rope marks, but believed them to be only part of the injuries inflicted by the locomotive.

A week before his death, Pierson, it was brought out in the examination, was compelled by the fraternity men to crawl the length of the building girded by men with sticks and clubs, and that this treatment developed deep abrasions on his knees. Pierson placed about the sores were on the body when it was found.

BEEN ATTACKED.

KIEF, Russia, Nov. 3.—The retirement of General Kleigels, the Governor General of Kieff, who was removed Wednesday and who has been succeeded by General Soukhomlinoff, has not served to restore order.

A report that the Jews had destroyed a Christian monastery was circulated among the mob and served to provoke a renewal of the attacks on the Jews. The massacre continued. General Karass, the military commander, called on the Cossacks, who were met with bombs, whereupon the Cossacks fired into the crowd, killing 12 persons and wounding 44.

All the stores in the Jewish market have been plundered and destroyed.

WASHINGTON, Ind., November 3.—Four crackmen, believed to be the same men who robbed the bank at Sanborn Wednesday night, visited the Odeon Bank fifteen miles east of Sanborn last night and were only frustrated in securing $6,000 in cash by the nitroglycerine blowing loose the bottom of the safe before the doors were forced open. Jacob Hodge, who was passing the bank while the crackmen were at work was bound and gagged by them.

The following bulletin has been issued to the teachers in the public schools of the Oakland School Department:

"The principals and Teachers of the Oakland School Department are advised and approved by the Board of Education will be placed in your hands by the middle of next week. Do not attempt to radically change the work of any particular grade so as to adjust it to the course of study at this present time, but make the change gradually so that all foundation work for studies may be given. We will hand you at the same time copies of bulletin on language work by Miss McFadden. This is to be used in the various grades as indicated in the new course of study. Please destroy all copies of the old course of study. This direction in reference to the destroying of the course of study does not apply to manuals in the hands of the teachers. The old manuals are still to be used so far as reference is made to the same in the course of study."

The next teachers excursion will include a trip to Mount Tamalpais, and will take place on Saturday, November 11, the weather permitting. Special attention will be given to the study of the geology of the region, and to the geography of San Francisco bay. Further particulars will be announced later. Respectfully,
W. M. GLENNON,

BROKEN POLICEMAN IS ALLOWED TO GO
Herman Maas the San Francisco policeman who because of being suspended from work on account of trouble with a woman had judgment suspended on a charge of drunkenness this morning by Police Judge Samuel. He stated that his recent trouble had caused him great mental anguish and that he had merely tried to alleviate the state of his mind by recourse to the bottle. He took too much and as a result was in the unfortunate predicament of having to ask the court for mercy. On his promise to return to San Francisco and cause no more trouble Judge Samuel allowed him to go.

In Java the European "resident" of a government station is a very important personage to whom great homage is rendered by the natives. A story is told of one resident who was thrown out of his dogcart while descending a hill. He had barely recovered from the stunning fall when he caught sight of his secretary—who had been following in his own carriage—coming bounding down the steep road like a big india-rubber ball, rolling over and over in the dust. "Hello, have you been upset, too?" asked the resident. "No resident," sputtered the fat little secretary, scrambling to his feet again, "but I thought if the resident leaps I leap, too."

SCHOENFELDERS WILL FIGHT OUT THEIR TROUBLES IN THE COURTS.

The divorce action of John Schoenfelder, a wealthy brewer with $100,000 against Fannie Schoenfelder, a former Egyptian singer came up before Judge Waste today on a motion of defendant's attorneys for an allowance of $500 additional costs and attorney's fees and $50 a month additional alimony. Schoenfelder is suing for a divorce on the ground of his wife's habitual intemperance. On a former occasion the court allowed Mrs. Schoenfelder $500 for costs and attorney's fees.

Webb & Webb have appeared as her attorneys. It was stated today by the younger Webb that they had a contract with the defendant but he declined to state what the purpose of such contract is. Judge Waste directed him to have it in court at the trial on November 13. For the purpose of taking a deposition of a witness for the defense living at Alhucy the judge allowed $35 but the matter of additional costs and attorney's fees and alimony was continued until the 13th inst.

Allen & Walsh represent the plaintiff. Schoenfelder was granted an interlocutory decree of divorce from his wife some time ago, but later she came into court and alleged that he had paid her $1000 to allow the case to go by default and she now wants more of his property. He consented to the re-opening of the case in order to allow her to put her case before the court.

HANDSOME VASE IS STOLEN

Rev. Father Dempsey, pastor of the Church of the Immaculate Conception, reported to the police today that a valuable vase which he had contributed to the ladies fair, held in Maple Hall, had been stolen on the night of October 28. The vase was hand painted and had a picture of a woman on it representing an allegory. The piece of china was valued at $100.

The vase was not missed at once and at the present time there is no clue as to the person who took it. Detectives have been detailed on the case, however, and an effort will be made to recover the vase so that the charitable ladies of the parish will suffer no loss.

FOUR MONTHS FOR MURPHY.
Thomas Murphy was sentenced this morning to four months' imprisonment on a charge of vagrancy by Police Judge Smith. This morning an additional charge of drunkenness was also placed against him. He was sentenced to three days on this charge.

ARE TO EXHUME REMAINS

Mystery Deepens About Death of Aged Woman.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—Margaretta Todd, whose body surgeons will take today from the receiving vault of Woodlawn Cemetery in an effort to determine whether foul play had a part in her strange death, dreaded the fate that overtook William M. Rice, a wealthy and aged recluse, for whose murder by means of chloroform Albert T. Patrick, his counselor and confidant, was sentenced to the electric chair, according to the Herald.

"I often compare myself in my present circumstances with old Mr. Rice in that Patrick case," said Mrs. Todd. "That was the remark Mrs. Todd made only a short time before her body was found beside the Reading Railroad tracks in Philadelphia. She had been telling her troubles to her friend, Mrs. G. W. Moe, of Brick Church, N. J., and had described in detail efforts that she said, had been made to persuade her to sign papers surrendering the control of her estate, amounting to a sum variously estimated at from $250,000 to $500,000."

WENT WITH MOES.
Mr. and Mrs. Moe became acquainted with Mrs. Todd last summer at a hotel in Atlantic City. Mrs. Todd was to have gone from Atlantic City to her nephew, in Hammerton, N. J., but the Moe persuaded her to accompany them to Potosky, Mich., where they spent two weeks. On their return, Mrs. Todd accepted an invitation to spend a fortnight in her friend's home in Brick Church. She left there on Wednesday night, October 18, to return to the city, promising to come back in the near future.

HEARS OF DEATH.
"The first we knew that anything was wrong," said Mrs. Moe, "was on Friday afternoon, the day Mrs. Todd died. Mr. Amory came to our house apparently in great excitement, and asked if Mrs. Todd were here. Amory said he thought she might have come to Brick Church."

"As Mrs. Todd had asked my husband to witness her will, which was to have been made last Monday, I thought it natural that she might want to come out to discuss it."

"When last heard Mrs. Todd told me all about her business troubles. 'As long as I live,' she said to me, 'I shall never let a man have the power to act for me in business, and when I die no man shall get a penny of my money. It is going to my daughters. Even if I should marry, I would not leave my husband anything. I shall transact my own business until I die.'"

"In her new will there were to be no legacies, and her daughter was to have been executrix."

Coroner Schuler, following an autopsy on the body of Mrs. Margaretta Todd, the rich woman who was found dead on the Reading railroad tracks near Philadelphia, a week ago, today said that the woman could not possibly have been struck by a train. He said she could easily have been killed by some heavy weight falling on her while she was in bed, or by pressure of a knee. The autopsy showed that ribs had been fractured, together with the breastbone. Her clothing, the coroner said, was not disarranged in the slightest, but was smooth and neat.

A train struck her, the coroner said, the clothing, of course, would have been disarranged and torn.

WEBB APPEARS TO HAVE CASE SET

ALAMEDA YOUNG MAN'S TRIAL THE FIRST OF NEXT YEAR.

Judge Melvin, in department five of the Superior Court, this morning set down for trial on January 11 the case of A. C. Webb Jr., the Alameda young man who is accused of committing a criminal assault upon fourteen-year-old Florence Cook on September 2.

Webb is on bail but he appeared in court today with his attorney, A. F. St. Sure, of Alameda.

The Webb case attracted much attention in Alameda, as the defendant is a member of the crack Alameda Boating Club, and the Cook girl at first made accusations against several other young men who are also members of that organization.

VOLCANOE AND HURRICANES.

"Strange things have been happening in the South Sea Islands," writes a Sydney correspondent of The Daily News. "In Samoa a volcano has broken out, which belched forth a torrent of molten lava three miles wide clear to the sea. Fortunately, the land over which the torrent flowed was a desert and though the sight was singularly impressive, very little harm was done. Of the magnificent wharf which the Germans had erected at a cost of much labor and money not a trace remains. Over seventy natives were killed by falling trees or were drowned and with the exception of the German company's large store, Jalut was almost entirely destroyed."

"European residents took shelter successively in a bowling alley, an oven, a bathhouse, a bar and eventually in a store and managed to survive. The new steamer, the Germania, with the utmost difficulty succeeded in riding out the storm together with them. It seems to have had a pretty rough time at the Marshall group."

ODDITIES.
Dr. Barnardo, the London philanthropist who died recently, used to tell the following story: "At the door of one of the boys' homes was a mat with the words 'Wipe your feet.' One day as Dr. Barnardo was entering the house he saw a new boy removing his shoes and stockings and wiping his feet on the mat. He had taken the instructions in a literal sense." A London paper comments gravely. The anecdote reminds one of the notions at American doors, "Wipe your guns," referring to the railroads universally worn in winter."

A Cape Town clerk made an involuntary trip to England recently and was arrested on arrival at Southampton for traveling without paying his fare. He explained to the judge that he had boarded the vessel in the South African port to see a friend off, had some drink and tell tales. When he awoke the vessel was at sea. He had no desire to come to England. He was remanded for inquiries.

A resident of Selukwe, South Africa, writes: "The township is beginning to wear an air of excitement in consequence of the natives coming in to pay their butts for their singing and extravagant antics you would fancy our dusky brothers were highly delighted to come into town."

There is a Difference in Stores

—in some you feel at home, in others you don't. The Lace House has always been known as "the home-like store," where will always be found everything that is seasonable and where every courtesy and attention is extended to customers and visitors. Yet it is a well-known fact that it costs no more—quite often, less—to satisfy your wants here than in some stores of the other kind. As the advent of the holiday season approaches, these remarks are worth a passing thought.

There's an unusual variety to these Hats, too, some of the most effective being bow-shaped felts trimmed with velvet ribbon and wings; in brown, red and gray.

—because we know we are right.

There is absolute rightness in every detail of the Winter Suits for ladies and misses that you'll find here. Not a gathering of mediocre garments but an exhibit of styles worthy the high reputation this department has earned.

Long Coat Suits; Eton, blouse and bolero effects—each receives its full share of attention; and the fabrics and colors are right also. But it is the details to which we invite particular attention. Distance does not lend, but decreases the enchantment of these garments; the closer they are examined the more you admire them.

And as to prices, they too, are absolutely right—

$14.50, $16.50, $18.50 and to $49.50.

Warm Underwear

—the Ribbed kind

The largest part of the new neckwear is of white foundation, relieved by touches of color lace, ribbon, insertion, medallions, and a free use of very small beads. There are good values at all prices from 25c, 35c, 50c and to $2.50.

GUN IS NAVAL MUSIC

Claim That Uncle Sam's
"Glad Hand" Battery is Weak.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 3.—Your Uncle Sam's needs a new saluting outfit at Alcatraz.

Such is the conclusion of military men at department headquarters. No less a personage than Brigadier General Frederick Funston, commanding the Department of California, confirms this view of the situation.

Of course, General Funston, in his official capacity, does not criticize the subordinate officers who have charge of the important duty of replying to the salutes to the American flag from visiting warships of foreign nations.

In fact, the commanding general says he is satisfied investigation would disclose that, if there has been neglect in this branch of military activity at Alcatraz, he would have heard of it long ago. But whether or no the bald fact remains that the United States army has not properly equipped the post with a saluting battery.

A LONESOME GUN.

One lonesome gun, standing in stately solitude on a bluff of the rock far from the post headquarters, is the equipment with which the United States Government returns the courtesies of salutes from visiting war vessels. It goes without saying that this solitary cannon is inadequate to meet the demand imposed upon it by regulations. These require that the return salute to the American flag shall be fired at five-second intervals. Now any civilian, let alone one of the gallant boys in blue, knows that five-second intervals cannot be met with a solitary cannon, no matter how agile the powder monkey might be.

So must be repeated with painful emphasis the glaring truth that Alcatraz must be supplied with more saluting guns if the courtesies to our foreign callers are to be shown in true military fashion.

At department headquarters yesterday the account of the recent departure from regulations in the failure to return promptly the salutes of the homeward bound Russian cruiser, Lena, the arriving Italian warship, Calabria, and the German cruiser, Prinz Provok, interested discussion.

LAPSE NOT SERIOUS.

General Funston, most courteous and affable, was disinclined to consider the lapses as serious, because, as he explained, representatives of the various vessels' governments would have sent to the department post haste for explanations had the slight been too marked, for there is nothing in the relations between governments that requires such close attention as the observance of official courtesies.

Discussing the subject General Funston said:

"You remember that the Italian cruiser Umbria entered New York harbor and saluted the flag at Port Roosevelt. Our Government immediately took up the matter, and the State Department called for explanations. The discovery was made that in the official list of saluting stations of the United States furnished to foreign governments Port Roosevelt had been accidentally omitted. The Umbria's officers were, therefore, not at fault.

"So far as Alcatraz is concerned, there is only one gun there for saluting purposes. This gun is stationed on the south side of the island, so that it can be heard. It is quite a distance from the post headquarters. I have not knowledge that there has been any lack of proper reply to salutes, and I am of the opinion that perhaps, if there has been any failure there, it is due to misunderstandings. Such a misunderstanding as made in the Umbria's case.

"You must remember that saluting is done, not according to the rules that obtain in a golf or a tennis club, but by the most rigid of military regulations.

SALUTE ONCE A YEAR.

"When a foreign warship arrives at this post it is the duty of the commanding officer at Alcatraz, the official saluting point, to board the ship at once and to offer the courtesies of the department and the official compliments to the commander. That completed, the United States representative leaves and repairs to his headquarters. Then the foreign vessel salutes the flag. The reply should be prompt and according to regulations. Under the regulations it is the duty of the fort at Alcatraz to return all salutes. No salutes to the flag are exchanged under regulations between foreign vessels and land forts often that once a year, an exception being made in the case of ships carrying an admiral's flag.

"So far as the Lena, the Calabria and the Palke are concerned I have no official information that the salutes were not properly given. In the case of the German cruiser, the Palke, if a salute were fired, whether tardy or not, she was not entitled to it, for the vessel had been in this port only a few months before and had then given and had received the salute."

Governor TENDERED BRILLIANT RECEPTION

MANILA, November 3.—The public reception of Governor Wright and family today was attended by Americans, foreigners and Filipinos. It was the most brilliant of the kind ever given in the Philippines. There were many manifestations of loyalty, and the hope was generally expressed that Governor Wright would return to the islands. The people took three hours in passing the point where the Governor was stationed. A water parade will take place tomorrow of river craft which will escort Governor Wright to the summer on which he will sail for America.

RHEUMATIC PAINS

INVARIABLY YIELD TO DR. WILLIAMS' PINK PILLS.

Because the Poisoned Blood is Made Pure and Inflamed Tissues Healed.

When, with the approach of cold or wet weather, the rheumatic patient feels twinges of pain in the joints and muscles it is natural to think that the trouble is local and that it is caused by the chill or the damp. The truth is that rheumatism is a disease of the blood, caused by the failure of the body to cast off certain poisons. It is hereditary and often runs in several generations of one family. Cold, dampness and certain localities do promote the development of the disease, but the root of the trouble is always in the blood.

With this fact firmly in mind, it will be readily seen how useless it is to try to cure rheumatism by rubbing liniments on the skin. External applications are of use in securing temporary relief from pain—the cure for rheumatism lies in purifying and enriching the blood. The one remedy that has cured more cases of rheumatism than any other is Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and an instance of its power is found in the case of Mrs. Frederick Brown, of 40 Sumpter Street, Glen Falls, New York.

Mrs. Brown, who is now in the prime of life and the mother of a family, was a sufferer from inflammatory rheumatism from the time she was sixteen. She says: "It first appeared in my knee joints, then in my hips and waist. It became a regular thing that I would be laid up all winter. The rheumatism affected mostly my hands, hips, feet and shoulders. My hands were puffed up and my feet became deformed. I lost my appetite, couldn't sleep and sometimes I was compelled to cry out, the pain was so intense.

"For several winters I was under the doctor's care and while his medicine relieved the pain for a little while there seemed no prospect for a permanent cure. I was confined to my bed, off and on, for weeks at a time. My limbs swelled dreadfully at times and I was reduced almost to nothing.

"In the spring of 1904, upon the advice of a friend, I began to use Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. At that time I wasn't able to do anything and could barely get enough to keep alive. I felt a change for the better in about a month. I began to eat heartily and I suffered less pain. Of course I kept on the treatment, using care in my diet and in about three months I was cured. I am entirely well today and do all my own work. One of my daughters was also cured of rheumatism by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and my other daughter has taken them successively. She has greatly improved her strength, appetite and spirits and is a walking testimonial for the pills."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cured Mrs. Brown by driving rheumatic poisons out of her blood. They don't act on the bowels. They do one thing, and they do it well—they actually make new blood. In that way they root out the cause of most common diseases like anemia, indigestion, headache, nervousness, neuritis, sciatica, spinal weakness and the special ailments of girls and women, who suffer unspeakably when the richness and regularity of their blood becomes disturbed. That you must get the genuine Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, sold by all druggists. If you cannot obtain them readily write the Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y. A copy of our booklet, "Diseases of the Blood," sent free on request.

TRAGIC END TO FETES

Death Puts a Pall Over
Festivities of the Battleships.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—According to dispatches from Genoa, the fetes in connection with the inauguration of the new harbor works had a tragic conclusion, three officers losing their lives in an accident, says a cable dispatch to the Herald from Milan.

A storm came up Wednesday night toward the end of a dinner given on the French and Italian naval officers on board the British battleship Goliath. A cutter from the Italian armored cruiser Giuseppe Garibaldi, with seven officers and eight men on board, nevertheless left the Goliath for the shore. The cutter was crossing the outer harbor when it was run down and sunk by the packet steamship Maria Teresa.

RUNS CUTTER DOWN.

An alarm was immediately raised. The warships in the roadstead turned their searchlights on the harbor, several boats were launched and all the occupants of the cutter were rescued.

Several of the officers were in a desperate condition, and during the night Captain Surgeon Enrico Malizia, Captain Engineer Feruccio Morici and Chief Commissary Arturo Grassi died in the hospital. Lieutenants Poma and Modena are reported mortally injured.

The ships of the Italian and foreign squadrons are flying flags at half-mast and their departure has been postponed in order to send deputations to the funeral of the victims.

TAKES ACID TO END SORROW

MRS. J. J. SULLIVAN LEAVES ALL
EARTHLY CARES BEHIND HER.

FRUITVALE, Nov. 3.—A telegram received here yesterday from Grass Valley says: "Mrs. J. Sullivan committed suicide here yesterday morning at the home of her niece, Mrs. William Provis, on High street, with carbolic acid. She stepped over here on her way from her home at Fruitvale, accompanied by her daughter. She arose shortly after 7 o'clock and entered the woodshed. The daughter went to call her for breakfast a few minutes later and found her dying, with an empty bottle at her side. Her husband arrived last night from Fruitvale. Ill health caused the suicide."

MEETS WITH ACCIDENT.

C. A. Welden, a contractor, while bowling alone on his bicycle behind a Standard Oil tank wagon, Thursday, as it unexpectedly turned to go in at the corner of Fruitvale avenue and Eighteenth streets, ran into it, was thrown and a wheel passed over his right leg and shoulder. Curiously enough no bones were broken. He was removed to his home at the corner of Putnam street and Tevis avenue, and Dr. L. B. Smith called and the injured man is expected to recover.

A GRAND TIME.

The event given by the Fruitvale Athletic Club at its building on Fruitvale avenue Thursday evening, was an event in Fruitvale life, for sure. The attendance crowded the seating capacity to the utmost. It was a thoroughly representative audience, including many of the most prominent citizens of Fruitvale, men who are leaders in moral and as well as material things. The long program was carried out in perfect shape, and the conduct of the event was kept up to the high standard heretofore set. Everything was conducted in a gentlemanly, clean and interesting manner; and more than one of the leading business men present declared, at the close of the evening, that he "wouldn't have missed it for $5." For a specimen of good, clean athletics it was the limit.

Much of the credit for this good state of things, in a modest way, is due to Constable Tom Carroll, who earlier in life was a professional athlete, and who seems to know how to bring out the best in men in this line on a decent level.

ASKS FOR PENSION AS CURIO

Millionaire Gets One to Show Descendants
That He Fought.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—Pensions for millionaires is one of the new developments under the executive order of last year, making age the only disability necessary for the granting of a service pension. According to Commissioner of Pensions Warren, the application of a millionaire for a pension has been recently favorably passed upon. He does not want the pension, according to the Commissioner, on account of the money it carried with it, but simply to perfect his record of honorable service in the civil war. This view of the age disability order is being taken by many well-to-do veterans who would not otherwise apply for pensions.

TO KEEP AS RECORDS.

The fact that they are eligible and performed the services stipulated in behalf of the Government, and that the Government is willing to recognize this service by a pension and the accompanying records of the same, make

THE PAPER KING

Tomorrow is the Last Day of His Stay in This City.

Every day this week the walk in front of the Owl drug store has been crowded with people watching the unique and clever work of Prof. Calver, the celebrated Albino paper king. As a paper artist Prof. Calver has a wide-world reputation and his work is worth seeing. It is almost impossible to describe his work, so the best way to do will be to stop at the Owl drug store and watch him transform a piece of plain paper into almost any desired design. Prof. Calver was born and brought up in London, England, and is a typical, well-educated Englishman. By some he might be considered eccentric because of the length of his hair, but the hair plays a really important part in his work, for the reason that he is a hair specialist of such standing that the Herpelide Co., manufacturers of Herpelide, the well-known hair dressing, employ him to travel from city to city for the purpose of giving all who may ask it free advice regarding the care and treatment of the hair. In many cases Prof. Calver's advice has resulted in saving or creating a fine head of hair. Don't be backward about asking questions about Herpelide, either. Calver is on duty for the purpose of answering, and this he does with an English accent most charming to the ear.

YOUNG LADIES' INSTITUTE
GIVES VERY SUCCESSFUL
HALLOWEEN PARTY.

LIVERMORE, Nov. 3.—The Young Ladies' Institute gave a very successful dance on Tuesday evening at the Sweeney Opera House. The dancers were all garbed in white as befitting a Halloween party. The music was furnished by Bronckes's orchestra and was excellent. The floor was well lighted, being about eighty couples present, all of whom enjoyed the treat provided by the young ladies. The committee in charge consisted of Misses Grace Aylward, Rose Kelly, Winnie Gallagher, Fanny Martin and Margaret McKeany. Last Saturday night the ladies of Grace Church gave an excellent and well attended party at the Sweeney Opera House. The title of the play was "The Capture of King Boy of Boyville." and was written especially for the occasion by Miss Rebecca Snow.

The High School football team will go to Stockton Sunday to play a game with the Stockton High School team. Considerable activity is shown in the reality and building markets here lately, as evidenced by a number of new buildings proposed and in actual construction.

Company B of San Jose will hold a practice shoot on the local range Sunday.

Opening Washington Street

The opening of Washington street from Fourteenth street to San Pablo avenue has been agitated at different times during the last fifteen years without anything being definitely accomplished. It was evident years ago to men who forecasted the future that the opening would become an ultimate necessity, but it is the habit of the great majority to let the future take care of itself. There were others, however, who took a narrow, selfish and locally hide-bound view of the proposition. Among these were certain Washington-street property owners, who labored under the delusion prevalent in a limited circle a decade ago, that the retail trade center of Oakland could be confined to the seven blocks on Washington street lying between Seventh and Fourteenth.

The recent marvelous growth of the city, with its attendant business expansion, has pressed the issue of opening Washington street for a speedy settlement. The opening has become almost as great a necessity for Broadway as it is for Washington street business men. Soon the congestion of travel at the junction of Broadway and Fourteenth will compel some measure of relief. Such relief can be more easily and cheaply had by extending Washington street to San Pablo avenue than in any other way. Indeed, that is the way to deflect the tide of traffic which flows into Broadway at Fourteenth street with an ever-increasing volume. As the city grows and the street cars multiply, the congestion at the intersection of Broadway and Fourteenth during certain hours of the day, becomes more acute and dangerous. Unless some relief from the pressure is afforded that crossing must soon become a death trap.

At the present time considerable relief is afforded by the fact that pedestrian travel has a right of way across City Hall Square to San Pablo, but if this footway were abolished the entire tide of travel that now throngs it would be forced down Fourteenth street on one side and San Pablo on the other, to still further increase the growing congestion at the Five Points. It is apparent, therefore, that relief from the congestion at Broadway and Fourteenth is intimately associated with the opening of Washington street and the erection of a new City Hall. Unfortunately the project to open Washington street and erect a new City Hall on the west side of that thoroughfare between Fourteenth, Fifteenth and Clay streets, was voted down by a narrow plurality at the recent bond election. Had that project carried Washington street would have been opened and the congestion at Broadway and Fourteenth relieved. Today the situation is worse than it has ever been.

It is a physical impossibility that the traffic of all the city lying north of Fourteenth street should be forced into one street as is now being done. Broadway is becoming a mere funnel. During the busy hours of the day the thoroughfare from Fourteenth to Seventh is one continuous string of cars, which impede travel and render the street dangerous for pedestrians to cross. The situation is aggravated by the switching of cars above Seventh street, which often keeps the Eighth street crossing blocked for several minutes at a time. The turning of the Sixteenth and College avenue cars into Twelfth street adds to the danger and confusion on that part of Broadway. At Fourteenth and San Pablo the San Pablo, Telegraph avenue, Grove street, Piedmont avenue, Sixteenth street, Oakland avenue and the Shattuck avenue lines come together, and are intersected at right angles by the Fourteenth street and Grand avenue lines.

This condition cannot continue for any great length of time. It can only be obviated by opening Washington street, and that is what should be done. It is a mistake to suppose that this will injuriously affect business or property interests on Broadway. The reverse is the case. In reality, business on Broadway below Fourteenth street would be helped by opening Washington street. Business is now rapidly moving out on San Pablo and Telegraph avenues, because of the deadline being created at Fourteenth. This is operating to the injury of property on the cross streets, as well as on Broadway and Washington. It is high time the people looked this matter in the face, and dismissed the foolish notion that the business of a great city, which Oakland is fast coming to be, can be fenced in and tied down to one particular spot. Business will not stay where it is hemmed in on both sides by deadlines.

The West End Improvers have been holding an experience meeting and airing their grievances against the Oakland Traction Company. They are complaining of what THE TRIBUNE told them would happen at the time the citizens of Alameda joined a group of gullible merchants and a band of Jim Crow politicians in worrying the Oakland City Council into granting the Traction Company a franchise along East Fourteenth street despite the protest of the property owners. "The promises made to us when we helped the company to get its franchise have not been kept," plaintively said President Smith. "It is the same old story—we have been fooled again," he added. Nae doot of it, as a Scotchman would say. We pointed out to our Alameda friends that the East Fourteenth street franchise was not at all necessary to the Traction Company in giving Alameda and East Oakland the improved service it has been promising for the last three years.

The Suffrage Issue in Maryland

Former Governor William Pinckney Whyte, whom the Baltimore Sun terms the Grand Old Man of Maryland, has joined Senator Rayner in opposing the suffrage amendment to the Maryland constitution, but he bases his opposition on purely academic grounds. He makes no objection to the purpose or the phrasing of the amendment, but says he will vote against it because it was submitted by the Legislature and not by a constitutional convention. The moral effect of his objection will count for little.

Senator Rayner still makes the insincere objection that the amendment will disfranchise illiterate white men. Indeed he could make objection on no other ground since the Bourbon organs are quoting from a speech he delivered in 1903 advocating the disfranchisement of negroes, who he declared should never have been given the ballot. He was then a candidate for the Senate. Since he was elected by the same Legislature that submitted the amendment, he is now forced to raise a false pretense that is a discredit to his sense of justice to justify his opposition to a measure to which he had given his approval in advance. Senator Rayner says he opposes the amendment, not because it disfranchises negroes, but because it also disfranchises illiterate citizens of foreign birth.

In other words, he gives a dishonest excuse for breaking faith with the Legislature that elected him. Apparently he is more intent on striking the Gorman Democratic machine below the belt than he is on doing an act of public justice. He is still committed to the scheme of disfranchising colored voters.

The story of the alleged finding of a record of the De Soto expedition written on an antelope skin and hidden under a rock near Lake Itasca, in Minnesota, puts too great a strain on credulity. This alleged record is dated August 9, 1547, six years after De Soto's body was consigned to the Mississippi near where Memphis now stands. While the record itself is negative by all the known facts regarding the De Soto expedition, it still remains to be explained how the piece of antelope skin was preserved for 350 years.

It is about time the sociologists began to figure out the relation of the dress suit case to crime. It is astonishing how often this implement of modern society figures in sensational crimes. People will recall that Dimmick, who was convicted of stealing $30,000 from the San Francisco Mint, sneaked the stolen coin out in a dress suit case. Cunliffe, who robbed Adams Express of $100,000, hid $90,000 of the money in a suit case. A suit case figured recently in the mysterious murder of a young woman on the outskirts of New York. The police of Boston and Pittsburg are now engaged in probing the mystery of a young woman's remains found in a suit case. If this sort of thing continues the man with a suit case will be regarded as an object of suspicion.

The Sacramento Bee grows quite peppery over some good-natured comments in these columns on the recently-printed predictions of Charles K. McClatchey regarding the probable outcome of the San Francisco election. The tantrum was both natural and expected. Our contemporary's claim that when it does the same thing others do it is justified because its motives are superior is characteristic. It is not surprising that it charges unfairness while being conspicuously unfair itself. Therefore, its stale accusation that THE TRIBUNE has ever defended Schmitz and championed his re-election does not merit reply. Notwithstanding the Bee's displeasure, this paper will continue to print the news and tell the truth about San Francisco politics. If this be treason, our Sacramento contemporary will have to make the most of it.

Printing editorials in the form of link sausages has its drawbacks and occasions griefs out of the ordinary. The traveled sage of the Alameda Argus is addicted to the practice, and, in the language of Truthful James, we are free to maintain, does right smart at it. His paragraphs are real "pearls" and always readable. But the other day the Argus foreman got an anarchistic spell on him and chopped up one of the linked-sausage editorials and distributed the remains all over the page. The effect was unique and amusing to the reader, but extremely sorrowing to the editor, who sadly apologizes for the apparently irrelevant state of the editorial mind. Well, it is not quite so bad as placing a funeral notice under the head of "Social Merry-makings," but it is certainly disconcerting. When the foreman really exerts himself he has got the proof-reader whipped to a frazzle in queering the editorial room. The editor of the Argus has our profound sympathy. If he should be indicted for the murder of the foreman we will try and get on the jury and will joyfully vote for his acquittal.

RAW ADVERTISING AS NEWS MATTER.

Press bureaus of all sorts are notoriously incompetent, probably because the men who hire them do not know what good work is, and would discharge any man who did it. Every proprietor of a first-class theatre is dissatisfied with the work of the dramatic critics, though it is really good advertising, and he gets it for nothing. On the other hand, he cheerfully pays good money for the worthless drivel of the "advance agent," besides contributing to that man's salary for writing it; and in the case of such theatres as are treated by the papers not as art news, but as advertising, the "write-ups" are likely to be quite as bad as the advance notices. So every retail merchant, who pays extra for a "reading notice" without advertising marks, insists on having that notice written in a fashion that screams "advertisement" all over its face. If he were offered something really worth his money, he would refuse to pay for it. The railroads, who pay high prices for every other sort of expert service, and get it, are paying more than newspaper salaries to their newspaper experts, just now, and not getting good service. Either they have not been shrewd enough to hire good newspaper men, or those they hired were shrewd enough to know that newspaper work would suit their employers better than good.—Fresno Republican.

CLAIMS SHE WAS DECEYED

MAE WARD REITERATES HER CHARGES AGAINST PLATT AND OTHERS.

OMAHA, Neb., Nov. 3.—Mae Catherine Wood has filed another suit against Senator Platt and others for $150,000 damages. The defendants in this suit are Thomas Platt and F. H. Platt as officers of the United States Express Company, former Postmaster General Wynne, William Loeb, secretary to the President and J. Martin Miller, late Consul to Aix Les Chapelles.

RENEWS HER CHARGES.

The suit follows the lines of former suits, alleging that the defendants conspired to decoy her to New York for the purpose of committing a felony on her. The petition alleges she was caught in New York, an effort made to drug her and she was deprived of her liberty for two days. Immediately afterward she says, these men published statements that she had sued Platt for breach of promise, which was false. Miss Wood declares she believes all of these machinations against her were for the purpose of distracting public attention from the marriage of Platt to Carrie Thompson, alias Lillian Janeway, in Washington.

HOLD REVIVALS AT SAN LEANDRO

MUCH INTEREST IS BEING MANIFESTED IN THE MEETINGS.

SAN LEANDRO, Nov. 3.—The most notable happening in San Leandro these days is the revival still going on in the Methodist Church. It was originally held in the Nevins' building down town, as previous experience had been that the people would not go to the church for any such purpose in any numbers worth while. But the meetings were removed to the church nearly a week ago, and the popular interest still continues.

On Monday evening Miss Fassett, the deaconess, talked on the theme of "Pentecostal Fire," telling how the fire of heaven or light, came upon the first assembly of the Apostles and other followers of Jesus at their first meeting after he had passed away from their sight, enabling the Apostles to speak with other tongues than those they knew, and said that wherever earnest people were gathered together the spiritual fire could still come down upon them enabling them to be and to do better than they had ever done before.

Her method is a straightforward, sensible appeal to the better nature of men and women to come forward and assert itself. Under this presentation of the gospel and the sweet singing of Charles Reid, San Leandro people are being religiously moved as they have not been for years, and all without any of the artificial frenzy and excitement which so often attends such meetings. Members of other religious denominations than the Methodists are taking a deep interest in the meetings. At the close of the meeting Monday evening four men announced their conversion; but the general policy of those conducting the meetings is not to say anything concerning the number of conversions, feeling that whatever is done is not their work but that of the spirit of God.

The meetings will continue indefinitely—so long as the attendance shows that there seems to be need of them.

SOCIAL NOTES.

JOE JEFFERSON LEAVES A HANDSOME ESTATE

NEW YORK, November 3.—There was organized in New York yesterday the American Drug Syndicate, which includes one thousand retail dealers. The syndicate has a Rhode Island charter and is capitalized at $200,000. The organizer is C. F. Gouldard, formerly of San Francisco, who controls ten per cent of the stock. The organization is intended for mutual protection against inferior and injurious drugs and compel a standard in the staple products.

The president is George Ramsey of this city.

CHOIR SINGER IN JAIL

Leads a Dual Existence and Sentenced as Shoplifter.

CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—While friends and detectives have searched for Miss Marie Louise Hill, member of the choir at the Moody Church, student of sociology and commanding the respect of those who knew her intimately, she has been a prisoner at the Bridewell, committed to the institution on her plea of guilty as a shoplifter. She was sentenced October 10, the day following her disappearance, under the name of Annie Harold.

A DUAL EXISTENCE.

Her dual existence and the mystery of her departure from her boarding place, only yesterday, when the matron at the Bridewell confided with her pleasure in a newspaper and she admitted her identity. She had concealed it, she said, because she wished to return to her friends with character unshaken. The police were informed and Miss Hill, conceding no longer possible, requested that Dr. W. S. Jacoby, assistant pastor of the Moody Church, and Mrs. H. B. Brown, from whose home she disappeared, be summoned. Mrs. Brown had reached the institution and obtained Miss Hill's release by paying the part of her fine not worked out, when Dr. Jacoby and a detective arrived.

DEALS IN STOCKS.

When Miss Hill left her boarding place the day of her disappearance, she had gone to a stock broker's with whom she had dealings relative to gas stock, which she had purchased. Then she went to a publishing house, for which she intended to canvass. Having drawn $100 from a bank, she spent several hours shopping. She was seen by a house detective in a department store concealing a $15 silk waist on her person. When arrested she gave the assumed name and said that her occupation was that of a writer. Next day she pleaded guilty in the police court and was fined $20 and costs.

TO STUDY PRISONERS.

"I had spent $40 shopping and had plenty left to pay my fine," she told the police, "but would not do so because I wanted to go to the Bridewell to study the prisoners. I have been interested in sociology and thought it an opportunity to extend my studies."

Consumption Cured.

Foley & Co., Chicago. Dana, Ind. Gentlemen: Foley's Honey and Tar cured me of Consumption after I had suffered two years and was almost desperate. ## SAY REACTIONARIES ARE MAKING TROUBLE

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—A dispatch to the Times from Berlin says: A private telegram from St. Petersburg says it is absolutely certain and can be proved that the reactionaries, under the leadership of General Trepoff, have been fomenting disorders throughout Russia in order to counteract the efforts of the revolutionists. The reactionaries, it is asserted, have sent agents provocateurs to various cities in order to create a condition of anarchy and to compel the Czar to take military measures. To discredit Count Witte is also an object of the reactionaries.

OFFICIAL DAY FOR TURKEY

Proclamation of the President to His People.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—The President has issued the following proclamation, naming Thursday, November 30, next as a day for Thanksgiving:

"By the President of the United States of America, a proclamation: "When, nearly three centuries ago, the first settlers came to the country which has now become this great Republic, they faced not only hardship and privation but terrible risk to their lives. In those grim years the custom grew of setting apart one day in each year for a special service of thanksgiving to the Almighty for preserving the people through the changing seasons. The custom has now become national and hallowed by immemorial usage. We live in a safer and more plentiful times than our forefathers, the men who, with rugged strength, faced the rugged days; and yet the dangers to national life are quite as great now as at any previous time in our history. It is eminently fitting that once a year our people should set apart a day for praise and thanksgiving to the giver of good, and, at the same time, that they express their thankfulness for the abundant mercies received, should manfully acknowledge their shortcomings and pledge themselves solemnly and in gratitude to strive to overcome them. During the past year we have been blessed with bountiful crops. Our business prosperity has been great. No other people has ever stood on as high a level of material well-being as ours now stands. We are not threatened by foes from without. The foes from whom we should pray to be delivered are our passions, appetites and follies, and against these there is always need that we should war."

"Therefore, I now set apart Thursday, the 30th day of this November, as a day of thanksgiving for the past year, and of prayer for the future, and on that day I ask that throughout the Nation the people gather in their homes and places of worship, and, in rendering thanks unto the Most High for the manifold blessings of the past year, consecrate themselves to a life of cleanliness, honor and wisdom, so that this Nation may do its allotted work on the earth in a manner worthy of those who founded it and of those who preserved it.

"In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

"Done at the city of Washington, this 2d day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and five, and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and thirtieth.

"THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

"By the President, ELIHU ROOT, Secretary of State."

MOORE-SELBY.

One of the important weddings of the week in Los Angeles society was that of Miss Rowena Josephine Moore of that city to Paul Selby of Johannesburg, South Africa, formerly of Oakland.

In the drawing room of the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Moore, the ceremony was performed, a bower of foliage and white chrysanthemums forming a canopy beneath which the bride and groom stood. Rev. Baker P. Lee officiated. The bridesmaids were Miss Edith Selby, sister of the groom, and Miss Marion Walsh of Oakland, and Miss Agnes Arneill of Ventura. Eugene B. Beck of Oakland was best man.

An informal reception followed the ceremony and receiving with the bride and groom and their attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Moore, Mrs. Prentiss Selby and Miss Florence Selby, Mrs. Margaret Hughes, Mrs. I. M. Polb, Mrs. Josephine Butler and Mrs. Fannie Shoemaker.

Mr. Selby is the son of the late Prentiss Selby and is a member of one of Oakland's most prominent families. After visiting in Oakland for a short time, Mr. and Mrs. Selby will leave for South Africa to make their home. Both Mr. and Mrs. Selby are graduates of the University of California.

WILL APPEAR HERE.

Miss Ida May Bradley, the clever daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Bradley, will make her debut Monday evening at Ye Liberty theater in "The Optimist" with the Nellie Company.

Miss Bradley has scores of friends here, and many box parties are being formed to greet the popular young debutante.

CARD PARTIES.

Mrs. J. Q. Brown was the hostess yesterday afternoon at a very informal card party given to compliment her mother, Mrs. Edwin Gager of Columbus, O., who is here on a brief visit. The attractive home was filled with blossoms, and about thirty guests enjoyed Mrs. Brown's hospitality, and today an equal number of guests were entertained, the affair also honoring Mrs. Brown's mother.

DRAMATIC READING.

The dramatic section of the California Club in charge of Mrs. Will Madern, held one of the most interesting meetings of the year yesterday afternoon. The subject of the afternoon's discussion was the Masterlink play, "Monna Vanna," and papers were read by Madame Tojetti and Mrs. Crawford.

The interest of the day was centered however in the reading of the play by Miss Mabel Duffy, Ernest Glendinning, of the Alcazar, and Robert Lawlor, of the Orpheum. These young people read effectively the subtle suggestive lines, and their interpretation was quite creditable. Miss Duffy read Monna Vanna, Mr. Glendinning took the Guido lines, and Mrs. Lawlor read the old man character, Marco, in a pleasing, convincing manner.

The subject announced for the first Thursday in December is Joseph Conrad's story, "Tomorrow."

DANDRUFF CAUSED BY A GERM.

A New Discovery That Kills the Germ and Prevents Baldness.

Pretty nearly all the hair preparations for dandruff have some merit in allaying itching of the scalp, and in being a fairly good dressing for the hair, but there is only one that recognizes what causes dandruff, falling hair, and baldness, and that destroys the cause, a little germ—and that is Newbro's Herpicide. This germ eats its way into the scalp, it digs up the scalp into little white scales. Unless it is destroyed there's no permanent stopping of falling hair and cure of dandruff and baldness. Newbro's Herpicide kills the germ. Destroy the cause, you remove the effect. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

INFORMAL DINNERS.

Judge and Mrs. Aylett Cotton entertained last evening at an informal dinner in honor of Miss Sophie Borel and John M. Lewis, whose engagement was recently announced. The affair was quite informal.

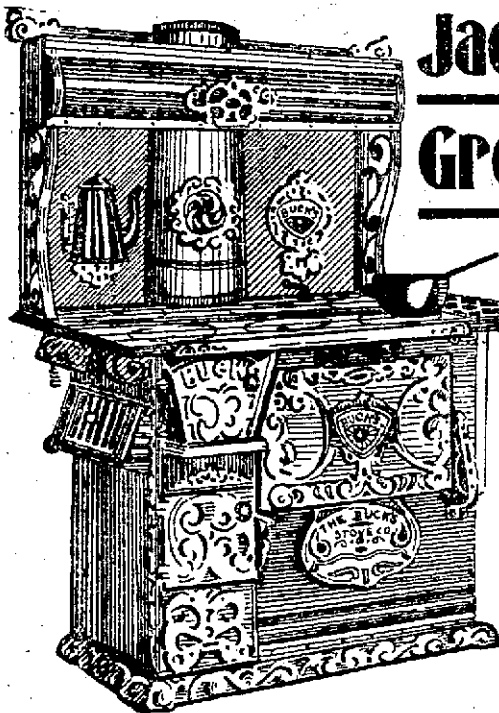

Mrs. Edward Hall Dodge was the guest of honor Wednesday evening at an elaborate Halloween dinner given by Miss Alice Britton at the Empire, San Francisco. The Halloween idea was carried out in decorations and favors, the dining-room being lighted entirely with jack-o-lanterns with electric lights within, while a huge pumpkin filled with autumn fruit formed a centerpiece. The name cards were water-color sketches of pumpkins, and the favors were miniature demons for the men and little witches for the girls. After the dinner there was a pleasant game of five hundred, the prizes being won by Miss Julia Williams, Miss Blanche Layman, Wallace Foster and Mr. MacDonald. QUESTION DISCUSSED

City Officials Considering Propositions Submitted to Them.

The members of the City Council and Mayor Mott were closeted in executive session last night for half an hour in an attempt to solve the garbage question.

The proposition discussed by the city's chief executive and the city fathers was that of purchasing the plant of the Pacific Incinerating Company.

Mayor Mott has been in conference with the incinerating people for several weeks. They are willing to sell, but the figure they put on their plant is more than either the City Council or the Mayor will pay.

It is understood that President Lilly of the Incinerating Company thinks that his plant is worth $30,000, and has asked the city to pay that amount for it.

The Councilmen all thought this figure exorbitant, and stated that they would not pay so large a sum.

It is probable that unless the Pacific Incinerating Company abandons its request for that sum of money that the present administration will not take further steps to obtain municipal control of the establishment.

WOMAN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY

NEW YORK, November 3.—Having pledged itself to raise $542.75 the coming year, the executive committee of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church brought its thirty-sixth annual session to a close yesterday with a service of song and prayer.

It was a stirring moment when, late in the afternoon, the Secretary of one branch after another arose and announced what the other branch would give. The figures, barring some thank offerings, were as follows:

New England, $44,336; New York, $84,840; Philadelphia, $55,500; Baltimore, $18,000; Cincinnati, $56,373; Northwestern, $123,000; Des Moines, $58,000; Minneapolis, $21,320; Topeka, $31,000; Pacific, $10,600; Columbia River, $3,500. One thousand dollars had already been pledged to the new school building in Peking, and $1,000 from the children.

Much miscellaneous business was pushed through. The need of organizing industrial work in the foreign field was brought forward by Miss Moss, of Kansas City, who moved the organization of a committee to determine where industrial schools should be used and the character of the work, also to manage its disposal.

The committee on headquarters reported that the room in the Book Concern building would be open about November 15, and that Miss Grace Todd would be in charge for the present. Miss Fraehin was elected Field Secretary, and Miss Elizabeth Northup of Waltham, Mass., was elected editor of "The Woman's Missionary Friend."

WHALING FLEET ICE BOUND

FEARED THAT IT MAY BE IN TOO FAR FOR AID.

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 3.—Captain D. H. Jarvis, who commanded the relief expedition sent out by the United States Government in 1897 to aid the stricken whalers, stated today that if the whaling fleet now ice-bound in the Arctic was far eastward of Point Barrow it would be almost impossible for a relief expedition to afford them any material aid, as the difficulties of Arctic travel in the winter were such that it would be almost impossible to take sufficient food to aid so many men. Captain Jarvis states, however, that if the men can reach Point Barrow, there is hope that, with the aid of the natives, they may be able to survive the winter. Captain Jarvis is still hopeful, however, that the fleet will escape before the severe freeze-up of the winter.

STUDENTS IN PAJAMAS HOLD BIG RALLY

Greek Theater Scene of Unique Event—Red Fire and Speeches Add to Excitement.

BERKELEY, Nov. 3.—The Palamero rally in the Greek Theater last night was the greatest event of the season. From 7 o'clock, when an immense amount of red powder will be burned on Charter Hill, to the close of the rally, plenty of excitement was provided for the rosters and spectators. Special pains had been taken to procure good speakers, with the result that the best bunch of old favorites talked to the men. Joseph Koford acted as master of ceremonies.

An innovation was introduced in the plan of having a number of original stunts between speeches. Judge Waste, a graduate of many years ago, spoke. Milton Schwartz gave a monologue and others entertained. The serpentine was danced and all was excitement.

As is the custom, the freshmen met at 4 o'clock at Harmon gymnasium to gather wood. An immense fire was kindled.

Great quantities of red powder were kindly donated to the students by W. R. Pond, owner of Pond's drug store, on Shattuck and Center.

Some astonishing effects in twentieth century nightwear were on exhibition, nearly all the men appearing in full regalia.

OLD MAIDS GO ON THE STAGE

AFFAIR IS FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE METHODIST CHURCH.

BERKELEY, Nov. 3.—The ladies of the Trinity Methodist Ladies' Aid Society will produce the funny farce, "The Old Maid's Convention," tonight in the Berkeley Theater. The old maids gather from afar to discuss their mislaid lives and other allied subjects. They carry parrots, dogs, cats and other paraphernalia common to old maids, and with their grotesque costumes present a very amusing sight. At the crisis of the meeting, Professor Makeover enters and explains his wonderful invention which will rejuvenate the ugliest woman into a beautiful and blushing lass of sweet sixteen. The women grow interested and each in turn is run through the machine and when she emerges is in complete different costume and instead of a wrinkled skin a smooth and velvety complexion which is the envy of all present.

Many songs, piano selections and physical culture exercises will be introduced under the direction of Miss Annie O'Neil and Mrs. McClure. Among those who will take part are: Misses Yost, Morrish, Buck, Matthews, Roadhouse, Sherret, Sargent, Morse, Griggs, Kildner, Williams, Foss, McClure and fifteen minor parts.

Mrs. Gregg has the affair in charge, and the proceeds will be added to the church fund to be held in December for the benefit of the new church which the Methodist board, from the Presbytery, certifies a couple of months ago.

JOSEPH KOFORD.

to take up agricultural work on Bradford Island, Contra Costa County.

Miss Fannie Adams, who has been visiting in Berkeley, returned to her home in the city for the past two months, left this morning for her home in Los Angeles.

C. W. Clough, formerly proprietor of the Watsonville Register, is back again in the printing business. He is now associated with the Standard Publishing Company of this city.

EXPERT TESTIMONY IN DAMAGE SUIT

In the suit of Nicholas Brothers against the Contra Costa Water Company for damages for alleged losses from fire in West Berkeley, Professor Frank T. Green of the Department of Chemistry at the University of California is a witness this afternoon for the defendant. He gave expert testimony as to the pressure of water under certain conditions.

Other witnesses today were William Henry McCoy, meter-rater and collector for the water company, Richard Holmby, who is a watchman at the tank near the mill; Mrs. E. Weiginger, who keeps a boarding house near the mill; and H. M. McQueen, an expert at the all works adjoining the Neill's mill at the time it was burned. The last four named witnesses testified that the water pressure at the time of the fire was normal.

SCHOOL HOUSE IS BURNED

ROSE STREET BUILDING IS DAMAGED BY FLAMES.

BERKELEY, Nov. 3.—The old Rose-street school house at the corner of Rose and Milvia streets, had a narrow escape from destruction by fire yesterday evening, and was only saved through the prompt arrival and good work of the fire department. The alarm was turned in shortly after 5 o'clock and the North End company immediately responded. The firemen found the rear end of the building enveloped in a dense smoke and it was with difficulty that the location of the fire was discovered. In a few minutes the fire, which had only been burning a short time, was under control and the schoolhouse out of danger.

An investigation disclosed the source of the fire to be an ash barrel in which hot coals had been deposited. The barrel caught fire and the flames from it connected with the rear wall of the schoolhouse and a storm shed adjoining the main building. As a result a portion of the wall of the schoolhouse was burned, together with the roof of the storm shed. The damage will amount to $100.

VETERANS WILL BE ENTERTAINED

BERKELEY, Nov. 3.—The Joseph McCord Camp of Spanish War Veterans will give an interesting dance and stereopticon entertainment this evening in Odd Fellows' hall. Great preparations have been made for this occasion and the soldiers have made every arrangement for the entertainment of their guests. The stereopticon views will come first after which dancing will continue to a late hour.

WEDDED AT THE SMALL PARSONAGE

RICH EASTERNER CLAIMS AN ALAMEDA GIRL FOR HIS BRIDE.

ALAMEDA, Nov. 3.—At the parsonage of the First Congregational Church last night Miss Maud Pennington became the bride of Roy Stafford, a wealthy Easterner.

Back of the marriage is a romance that would work into a first class plot. Both of the young people are from Bluffton, Indiana. The school days were spent there and a high regard sprang up between Miss Pennington and Mr. Stafford.

But the pretty young lady was forced to come to California. After spending about three years in Alameda, she returned to her home and Mr. Stafford was waiting for her.

They became engaged and Miss Pennington once again came to California. It was decided that when she returned home the marriage would be celebrated.

After two weeks had passed, however, the intended groom became tired of waiting and started for Alameda. He arrived here on Wednesday evening and procured the marriage license.

The ceremony last evening was private owing to a death in the family of the bride.

The father of the groom is one of the largest milling men in the Eastern States. Mr. and Mrs. Stafford will spend the winter in California, returning to their home in the spring.

SERVICE WILL BE IMPROVED.

ALAMEDA, Nov. 3.—The officials of the Southern Pacific Company announced that when the cut off from the broadgauge tracks to the Alameda mole is completed, the local train service will be greatly improved.

The Central Improvement Club has been notified that this work would be rushed and that Alameda will have better service. The railroad officials state that the work should take about two months.

N. S. G. W.

ALAMEDA, Nov. 3.—The twenty-second anniversary ball of the Alameda Parlor, N. S. G. W. is to be held on Thanksgiving eve. Alameda Parlor is the oldest in the county and their social affairs are always successful. Invitations are now out.

SOCIAL EVENING.

ALAMEDA, Nov. 3.—On Halloween night the members of the "C" Club met at Strawberry Villa and spent the time with the games of old. The villa was tastefully decorated in green and white. Those in attendance at the unique affair were: Miss Margaret Schneider, Pearl Driscoll, Pauline Rissman, Martha Ledema, Ruby Driscoll, Clemence Ledema, John De Valle, Dr. Charles Smith, James Brett, Lee De Mar, George Perry, S. Johnson.

DEATH ACCIDENTAL.

ALAMEDA, Nov. 3.—The Coroner's jury in the case of the death of Mrs. Ellen Spruce, who broke her neck by a fall from a house at Bay station, rendered a verdict that the death of the woman was accidental.

The testimony brought out at the inquest was the same as published in THE TRIBUNE of last evening.

VIOLATION OF ORDINANCES.

ALAMEDA, Nov. 3.—The police were busy today arresting the violators of different ordinances. Harry Spark rode his bicycle on the sidewalk. A. Holts of Oakland failed to secure a peddler's license and was taken to the Bastille. And H. Goldsmith for riding his wheel on the sidewalk.

PERSONAL NOTES.

ALAMEDA, Nov. 3.—The Bell family of 227 Central avenue will leave for an extended trip in and about Seattle.

Mrs. A. Montgomery and her daughter of 1412 Paru street are to move to San Francisco for the winter.

Miss Florence Zeller of 224 Central avenue is recovering from an attack of appendicitis.

T. F. Baird, who has been ill at the sanatorium for a number of weeks, is now up and about.

Bert Fisher is at his ranch and many Alamedans are receiving fine bags of quail as the result of his ability as a crack shot.

Miss Clara Innes of Concord is visiting friends in Alameda.

Mrs. Charles Malic has gone to Chico for the benefit of her health.

Mr. and Mrs. George Palmer of 12 Paru street have returned from Brookdale.

Dr. and Mrs. W. R. Stevens have returned from Paris, Ky. where they went to visit the Doctor's parents.

GOVERNOR PARDEE SAYS THAT TEACHERS SHOULD BE BETTER PAID.

RED BLUFF, November 3.—One of the largest audiences ever seen in this city gathered at the Christian Church to listen to addresses by Governor Pardee and David Starr Jordan, delivered as part of the program of the Teachers' Association of Northern California, in annual session here.

The Governor spoke at length on the progress made in the State educational facilities. He said it was a regrettable fact that among the vast number of educators there were so few men. He gave as the cause the fact that the salaries were too small to justify men in taking up teaching as a profession, although of the State's yearly income of $10,000,000 more than $5,000,000 went for the purpose of education. He declared that the bettering of the school system in this State was tending toward a lessening of the criminal element and said he believed the records would show that a large percentage of the criminals were men who had not been taught discipline as a class and were generally illiterate.

Governor Pardee was followed by Dr. Jordan, who spoke on his recent travels in Japan, the recent war and of the geographical formation of the land of the Mikado, illustrating his lecture with many views.

Part of yesterday's session of the association was devoted to the election of officers. They are as follows:

Professor A. E. Anderson of Colusa, president; Professor C. G. Lathrop of Santa County, vice-president; Ellen A. Lynch, Superintendent of Schools of Colusa County, corresponding secretary; J. D. Ewey of Butte County, treasurer; F. S. Reager of Glenn County, E. Zumwalt of Colusa and G. L. Allen of Tehama County were named as an executive committee.

After considerable argument, during which the merits of Redding, Sacramento, Berkeley and Chico were urged, Chico was chosen for the next place of meeting.

MANGIN WILL CONTEST IS BEGUN.

The work of choosing a jury was commenced this afternoon in Judge Ogden's Court to try the contest of the will of August Mangin, deceased. Action was brought by Eugene L. E. Mangin, youngest son of the deceased, and involves $20,000 worth of property.

The elder Mangin formerly lived at Hawthorne and Broadway street. He died on Sept. 22, 1904, leaving two sons, Eugene, the contestant and August Mangin to whom the deceased left all his property. The contestant is represented by John A. McDougal, R. M. Fitzgerald and Carl H. Abbott. The defendant has for his attorneys Cary Howard and J. B. Richardson.

CHORAL UNION IS ORGANIZED

FORMED AT HAYWARDS—DOINGS OF TRUSTEES AT LAST MEETING.

HAYWARD, Nov. 3.—Thirty of Hayward's music-loving people gathered in the High School Building, Wednesday evening to organize a Choral Union. The following were chosen to the offices necessary:

Miss Annie Obermuller, president; M. J. Madison, vice-president; Miss Annie Gray, secretary; R. Reid, treasurer; and Dr. Browning, Vice-Large and Charles Pimental committee on organization. Professor Bartlett of Alameda was present. Further arrangements will be made at the next meeting, Tuesday evening, November 7th, at the same place, when all who are interested are expected to be present.

TOWN TRUSTEES.

At their meeting, Wednesday evening, the trustees were presented with a protest petition in the matter of paving Castro street, which was one day too late to be legally open to consideration. It also lacked about two hundred front feet of representing a major portion of the frontage.

In the matter of the outlet sewer it was reported that the old pipe was originally laid on wooden supports—wooden cross pieces, between posts—which had rotted away, letting the pipe into the mud irremediably; and the Committee on Streets and Building was authorized to replace the lost portion with wooden boxing, for about 400 feet, which it is calculated will stay on top of the mud better.

Petitions for renewal of their licenses were received from the twenty saloons, but five were referred back for clerical perfecting. The others were accepted.

Town Attorney Gray was instructed to draw up legal notice that the trustees will receive bids for 1,000 feet of new fire hose to be added to the equipment of the Fire Department.

MOVED.

The Episcopal Church building has been removed to its new location on Castro street, where a rectory is to be built, also.

MORE PUPILS.

Principal Petray reports an increase of twenty-five pupils in the schools under him, during the past month. No wonder. President Roosevelt likes California.

Can we dispute the well-known fact that American women are nervous?

How often do we hear the expression, "I am so nervous, it seems as if I should fly," or "Don't speak to me." Little things annoy you and make you irritable; you can't sleep, you are unable to quietly and calmly perform your daily tasks or care for your children.

The relation of the nerves and generative organs in women is so close that nine-tenths of the nervous prostration, nervous debility, the blues, sleeplessness and nervous irritability arise from some derangement of the organism which makes her a woman. Fits of depression or restlessness and irritability. Spirits easily affected, so that one minute she laughs, the next minute weeps. Pain in the ovaries and between the shoulders. Loss of voice; nervous dyspepsia. A tendency to cry at the least provocation. All this points to nervous prostration.

Nothing will relieve this distressing condition and prevent months of prostration and suffering so surely as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mrs. M. E. Shotwell, of 103 Flatbush Avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y., writes:

"I cannot express the wonderful relief I have experienced by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I suffered for a long time with nervous prostration, backache, headache, loss of appetite. I could not sleep and would walk the floor almost every night.

I had three doctors and got no better, and life was a burden. I was advised to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it has worked wonders for me.

"I am a well woman, my nervousness is all gone and my friends say I look ten years younger."

Will not the volumes of letters from women made strong by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound convince all women of its virtues? Surely you cannot wish to remain sick and weak and discouraged, exhausted each day, when you can be as easily cured as other women.
